REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

WITH more than a formal acknowledgment of the divine favor, The Managers of the Children's Hospital review the record of the past year to gather up materials for their First Annual Report.

The idea of founding a Hospital in Boston exclusively devoted to the care of sick children has long been floating in the minds of one and another of our physicians and benevolent citizens, — suggested either by a humane consideration for the peculiar wants of that interesting class of sufferers, or by a knowledge of the good results which have been accomplished by such establishments in the Old World. Only one attempt, however, has hitherto been made to carry it into effect; and that, on account of the expense and unforeseen practical difficulties, was, after a brief experiment, reluctantly abandoned by its charitable projector.

The conception of the present Hospital originated with one of its Medical Staff, who, during a visit to Europe in 1867, had availed himself of every opportunity to become acquainted with the details of similar institutions; and brought back to this country, together with a large mass of information on the subject, a heart full of interest in it.

A few professional, and other friends, to whom the documents he had collected were submitted, after having carefully considered the subject in all its bearings, at an informal meeting on the 9th of December, 1868, unanimously decided that measures ought at once to be taken to put the project in execution. Without recounting all the initiatory steps, it is only necessary to say that a number of gentlemen, specially invited, met at the Hall of the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company on the 23d of January, 1869; and, after forming themselves into an association for the establishment of a Children's Hospital in Boston, appointed committees to petition the Legislature for an Act of Incorporation, to draft a code of by-laws, and to prepare an appeal to the public for pecuniary aid.

The Act having passed without opposition or delay, was finally accepted, and the Corporation duly organized on the twenty-second day of March.

The generous response which was made to the appeal enabled the Managers to purchase a neat and commodious house, No. 9 Rutland Street, in a healthy locality, and also, with the timely and generous assistance of a society of ladies, under the title of "The Ladies' Aid Association of the Children's Hospital," to supply it with suitable accommodations for about thirty patients, and many little articles for their comfort and amusement. This house was dedicated to its charitable and Christian uses, by appropriate services, on the 3d of August.

The Managers were signally favored in securing the invaluable services of Mrs. A. Tyler, as superintendent of the Hospital. Her large experience in the organization and charge of hospitals for sick and wounded soldiers during the late civil war; and her admirable qualities of mind and heart, — all consecrated to works of charity, — peculiarly fitted her for this responsible duty. One distinctive feature of the plan of The Children's Hospital is, that it shall be under the charge of voluntary nurses, who are willing to engage in the work for no other recompense than the satisfaction of ministering to the physical and spiritual comfort of the sick and suffering. It is obvious that very few can be found who are qualified for this office, — who have the requisite faith, patience, and self-denial. The only source to which the Managers could apply was to one of the communities of devout women termed Evangelical Sisterhoods, — two or three of which have been organized within a few years, — whose members have dedicated the whole or a portion of their lives to deeds of charity. Of one of these communities Mrs. Tyler had been a member.

It is to be expected that, so far as she exerts a religious influence over the children, that influence will be affected by the tenets of the church to which she is personally attached. To this the Managers have thus far seen no reason to object. They have neither attempted nor desired to place any restraint upon her conscience; nor have they taken any definite action as to the peculiar form of religious instruction and service which shall be adopted in the institution. The main point with them has been to secure for the children while inmates of the Hospital, in connection with the best of care, a positively Christian nurture. And both these results, they are convinced, have been perfectly accomplished under the existing administration. Every person who has visited the Hospital has been deeply impressed and highly gratified by witnessing the beautiful and striking effects which have been produced by the admirable management of the Superintendent and the ladies associated with her. A neater, more orderly, harmonious, and happy group of children cannot be found in any Christian household. The whole air of the Hospital, instead of being gloomy and depressing, is cheerful and gladsome. On entering the general ward one almost forgets that he is in the midst of the sick and suffering, as he sees on all sides smiling faces, and little hands playing with toys, or turning over the pages of illustrated books, and hears cheerful voices prattling merrily, or singing alone or together pleasant songs. To those nurses, who, under whatever system, can produce in so short a period such admirable and beneficent results the Managers have no reason to object, but rather to express their grateful obligations.

The objects contemplated by the founders of The Children's Hospital have been more than once brought to the notice of the public. But as some misunderstanding still exists in regard to the nature of the institution, it is proper to embody a brief statement of them in this Report.

The plan of the Hospital embraces a fourfold object:—1. The medical and surgical treatment of the diseases of children. 2. The attainment and diffusion of knowledge regarding the diseases incident to childhood. 3. A system of voluntary nursing, including moral and religious nurture, by cultivated and experienced Christian women. 4. The training of young women in the duties of nurses.

It is at once manifest from a consideration of these special features, not only that this Hospital is intrinsically different from any already existing in this city, but also that it would not have been possible to carry out our plan under the control of either of the established institutions,—such for example as the Massachusetts General Hospital. It will be seen, moreover, at a glance, that there is no foundation for the objection that has been expressed in some quarters, that this institution comes into collision with or encroaches upon the field already occupied by one or more of those already in existence. Such strictures could never have been made had the plan of The Children's Hospital been fairly understood; and the Managers are persuaded that those who have propounded them have too much good sense and benevolent feeling to continue their antagonistic attitude after what they had supposed to be a just ground of opposition has been taken away.

With regard to the need of such an institution the Managers have no doubt. One of their first steps was to obtain the judgment of experienced physicians in extensive practice upon this point. Their strong testimony confirmed and assured the opinion which their own observation had already led them to entertain, — an opinion which they are persuaded is shared by almost every intelligent and benevolent person who is acquainted with the condition of the poorer classes in our city. A glance at the weekly bills of mortality is sufficient to convince any one of the sad fatality of the diseases which afflict their children. How can it be otherwise?

Confined, as they often are, in close courts, narrow alleys, damp cellars, or filthy apartments, which the sunshine never cheers, nor the fresh air purifies; lying on uncomfortable and untidy beds, scantily covered from the cold; insufficiently fed with innutritious and unwholesome food, and tended by rough and careless hands, they become an easy prey to sickness in its worst forms, and sometimes waste away and die without even the alleviation of soothing words.

Even among the poor of a better class, — whose small rooms are neat and cleanly, whose hearts are warm with natural affection, and who reluct at no self-denials for their sick or wounded children, — the hard and incessant toil, that is necessary to keep their families from absolute pauperism, prevents the possibility of devoting to the little sufferers the time and care which they require. Painful as the deprivation is to the mother or sister, they cannot leave their work to give the needed medicine, or apply the proper dressing, at the right time; nor can they watch all night after the exhausting labors of the day. In a city so populous as ours, there are every day, hundreds of children afflicted with acute and wasting diseases, from which, under proper treatment, the greater number might recover; but which, situated as the patients are, will bring a large majority to an untimely death, or leave them feeble and sickly, — a burden to themselves and to their families.

We wish to make provision, both for the medical and surgical treatment, and the moral benefit, of such sufferers as have been described. While endeavoring to cure, or at least to alleviate, their diseases, and to give a tone to their general health, we desire at the same time to bring them under the influence of order, purity, and kindness; to introduce them, for a season, to the brighter side of life; and, by means of intelligent and tender nursing, by attractive books, pictures, toys, and little works of art, and by the visits and attentions of the kind and cultivated, to do something towards beguiling their hours of suffering, quickening their intellects, refining their manners, and softening and encouraging their hearts.

Another object which we have in view is to supply a want in our community which has long been felt in the medical schools, though provided for in foreign cities; namely, an opportunity to study infantile diseases. These, as every mother and every nurse knows, are so sudden, so fluctuating, and so mysterious in their nature, and often so fearfully rapid in their fatality, that they furnish a distinct branch of medical science, the importance of which can hardly be sufficiently recognized.

Still further, we wish, in connection with the Hospital, to initiate a system, hitherto untried in Boston, of instructing young women of the middle and lower classes in the duties of nurses both for children and adults. A certain number will be received and employed under the direction and oversight of an experienced Matron, and of the Medical and Surgical Staff; and if they are found to have the proper qualifications for the care of the sick, will, after due probation, be furnished with certificates to that effect.

In order to the successful accomplishment of these important objects, the Managers earnestly solicit the contributions and favorable influence of their fellow-citizens. The amount already received from all sources, as appears by the annexed Report of the Treasurer, is $25,325. Of this sum, $21,804.50 are credited to subscriptions and donations; $3,000 to the estate of Miss Abigail Loring, allotted to this institution by the gentlemen intrusted with the distribution of her large charitable bequests; $22 to four little girls at Longwood, who modestly withheld their names; $200 to a fair held at the south part of the city; $177 to a fair in Boston Highlands (both projected and conducted by a few kind and energetic young misses, whose names appear in the Report); $112 to board paid for patients, and $9.74 to the alms-chest in the Hospital.

To all and each of these contributors, the Managers return their grateful acknowledgments. If they will visit and inspect the Hospital, they will see what use has been made of their bounty, and how much relief and happiness it has conferred.

It is an interesting fact worthy of record, that the little patients themselves, who are occasionally the recipients of small sums from visitors, almost daily of their own free-will drop their mites into the alms-chest: thus showing a generous wish to do their part towards helping the Hospital to extend to other children the benefits which they themselves enjoy so highly.

In addition to the pecuniary donations enumerated above, there have been occasionally brought to the Hospital offerings of flowers and fruits and books and toys and pictures, all of which have been grateful to the children, and have contributed not a little to their comfort.

The Ladies' Aid Association, of which mention has been already cursorily made, deserves a special and more emphatic acknowledgment. It sprung into vigorous existence almost simultaneously with the organization of the Hospital, and, as if by magic, provided all the sheets and pillow-cases and blankets and towels and little garments of every kind that were required, together with various articles of furniture and ornament, even before the house was ready for their reception. To the generous zeal and efficient co-operation of its members the institution is largely indebted for its excellent accommodations and prosperous commencement.

The medical attendance of the Hospital has been gratuitously rendered by a competent staff of physicians and surgeons. Their Report, which is appended, shows that the whole number of patients received to this date is thirty, — sixteen males and fourteen females. Of these, twelve were medical cases and eighteen surgical ; thirteen have been discharged, — eight well, two relieved, and three not treated ; fourteen still remain in the Hospital.

The total house expenses from its opening, July 22, to this date, have been $1,144.68 ; that is, on an average, about $230 a month, or at the rate of less than $3,000 a year. It is not, of course, to be inferred that they will continue to be kept down to this very moderate rate ; but it is highly gratifying to find, by actual experience, that the Hospital can be carried on so economically.

In conclusion, the Managers renew their earnest appeal for new and increased contributions to enable them to establish "The Children's Hospital" on a permanent foundation, and to offer to a still larger number its merciful shelter and succor.

Donations in any form — whether of household stores, of linen, cotton, or woollen stuffs, of children's garments, or of vegetables, fruits, or flowers — will be gratefully received, and are respectfully solicited. But the greatest need of all is of money, in larger or smaller sums, by donations, annual subscriptions, or life-memberships, with a view to such an endowment of the Hospital as will secure it against adverse contingencies in the future, and extend and perpetuate its benefits.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL STAFF.

THE first patient was received in the Hospital on the 20th July, and since that time to this date there have been Received and treated 30 patients.

16 males; 14 females.

12 medical; 18 surgical.

The result of treatment has been as follows:—

Discharged well	8
Discharged relieved	2
Discharged not relieved	3
Discharged not treated	3
Remaining	14
	— 30

There have been no deaths.

A table of the cases is herewith presented. Two patients were removed from Hospital within a day or two, by their parents, contrary to advice.

Of the surgical cases, there have been some excellent results; no doubt there will be, at some future time, special reports, which will embrace the unfavorable as well as the favorable cases.

Of the medical cases, there were three, whose condition, upon admission, would have warranted any one, however sagacious and skilful, to prognosticate a fatal result, and that within days, if not hours. This is mentioned because it affords a reasonable belief that their restoration is to be attributed to the kindly and untiring judiciousness of their nursing.

Some cases, of course, require more care and attention than others; all have received the care they have needed, and all have seemed to be contented and happy.

For the Medical Staff,

WM. INGALLS,

Secretary.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once, by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Report. The whole number of articles cut and made since last April is 1187.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates; not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association : —

President	Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP.
Vice-President	. .	Mrs. WM. W. TUCKER.
Treasurer	Miss C. A. BREWER.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

WITH the close of another year, the Managers of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL present to the Corporation a report of the transactions of the Board and of the condition of the Institution.

The position of the Hospital to-day, as compared with that of one year ago, we feel to be an interesting one, not only to the members of the Corporation, but to our benevolent public generally. At that time the idea of a Hospital for sick and maimed children had just taken form and become a reality; and it has been the privilege of the Managers, during the past year, to advance the idea, and bring it to its full development.

At the beginning of the year, the Institution was at No. 9, Rutland Street, in a house, the property of the Corporation, which barely held twenty patients besides their necessary attendants; the house was crowded to its capacity by patients; the lady nurses were deprived of suitable accommodations; and the various administrative departments were forced into narrow and ill-arranged quarters. Moreover, it was found that the situation of the building was such that an adequate supply of air for its inmates was wanting. It was therefore a matter of congratulation to the Managers that they were able to secure, by lease, the house in which the Hospital is now located. In place of being small and cramped, it is large, well arranged, and convenient; air, light, sun, water, and all the conveniences usually found in modern dwellings, are fully supplied; and the building is all we shall need for a number of years. The patients were moved on the 28th July. The Managers are happy to acknowledge that it was in consideration of the purposes to which the house was to be devoted that they were able to make very favorable terms with its owner.

It is highly gratifying to us that we can assure the Corporation that their charity has resulted in a large amount of good to the community. During the year now closing sixty-nine patients have been received, making our total for eighteen months ninety-nine. As you were told in the last Report, the first object of the Institution is to minister to the relief of sick and maimed children; to stretch forth the hand of charity, and raise the little suffering ones from their homes, where poverty, dirt, and the poorest hygienic surroundings are dragging them down day by day; and to give them such a temporary home, such food, clothing, care, and attendance as will restore them, as speedily as possible, to the blessings of health. Still further, that it was not alone from present illness or impending death we sought to wrest them; but that we sought to establish a strengthening and confirming of the whole bodily condition, which should give to the child, through life, a firm and vigorous constitution. Once more, we reminded you that, while we should endeavor to alleviate the bodily diseases of our patients, we desired to effect a change in their mental and moral condition; to elevate them, for a time at least, to the company of those who might and would teach them order, gentleness, and purity of life; to introduce them to the brighter side of life; and, by means of intelligent and tender nursing, by attractive books, pictures, toys, and little works of art, by plants and flowers, by sunlight and fresh air, by the visits of the kind and cultivated, to do something towards beguiling their hours of illness, quickening their intellects, refining their manners, and softening and encouraging their hearts. This threefold object of the Institution, we feel assured, has been accomplished to a very great degree.

We have lost some; but our death-rate has been very small: we have sent some away uncured; but we have healed a very fair proportion, when we compare our own with the statistics of other hospitals. But it can be known only to those who visit our wards, and see our patients in them, what good is being accomplished. The pinched features, the wasted limbs, the look which a student of the faces of the poor associates with insufficient food, bad air, and abominable hygienic circumstances, and surely considers the forerunner of disease, disappear in a very short time after the admission of the child to the Hospital; and, in place of depressing agencies of the worst character, the happiest conditions for restoration to soundness are manifest. Within the first few days, the irritable, querulous cry of our patients, their filthy, rude, or disorderly habits, yield before the potent, because firm, kind, and faithful attention of our ladies. Indeed, visitors are constantly surprised at the fat and rosy faces, the happy frolics, the improved manners which they see in the children who were, but a few weeks before, ill nourished and sick physically, and coarse and degraded mentally and morally.

The condition of the children now in the house is as good as should reasonably be expected. The number is steadily increasing; and there is promise that, at no distant day, we shall be called upon to admit as many as can be satisfactorily treated. In the mean time, we are going on steadily in the work which our Heavenly Father has placed before us, striving to give health and soundness to body, mind, and soul.

The Board of Managers cannot speak in too high praise of the assistance they have received from those kind and cultivated Christian ladies who have been instrumental in carrying on the Hospital during the past year. The system of caring for the sick, and especially for sick children, which seeks its only recompense in the consciousness of doing God's service; which is thoroughly rewarded by watching the return of health to the wasted one, and of the lighting up of intelligence in the lack-lustre eye, — needs no criticism. The care of the sick which is influenced by such considerations as these requires no surveillance to insure faithfulness in the discharge of duty, no reminders to urge the eye to be watchful, or the hand skilled and gentle. Indeed, the system of voluntary nursing, as suggested by the founders of the Hospital, and as carried out for the past eighteen months, has demonstrated the fact that it is the only satisfactory method of meeting the existing wants; and we are assured by our medical staff that it is by far the most efficacious method which exists. With the hope which we entertain of carrying out the system more completely, it bids fair to be a success. The Managers would feel that they were doing themselves an injustice, did they fail to mention the never-wearying, ever-skilful, watchful care of the Lady Superintendent; the gentle ministrations of the sister who left us in June, and is now preparing, in a foreign land, for still further work in the service of the Lord; and the kindly aid given by many ladies in caring for our patients during the past year. Their services are fully and kindly appreciated and gratefully acknowledged.

The Ladies' Aid Association, whose existence sprung out of our own, has through the past year continued its generous and valuable assistance. To the kind hearts and ready hands of those ladies we have been indebted for a large and constant supply of linen, clothing, household furniture and apparatus, all of which is essential to a proper carrying out of our plans. These gifts are acknowledged in full in the list appended to the Report.

It will be clearly seen, in the Treasurer's Report appended, that, towards the support of the Hospital, various sums of money have been received, the proceeds of Fairs and Private Theatricals; and to the projectors and managers of them we tender grateful acknowledgments.

Of the Fair so successfully conducted at the residence of one of our friends, in Hancock Avenue, the Managers cannot forbear lingering in pleasant recollection of her whose sympathizing heart and active mind arranged and organized it, and whose busy fingers prepared so many of the beautiful articles which graced the tables. To her, as one of the originators of the Ladies' Aid Association, we owe the valuable assistance we have received from that Society; to her, the first movers in the establishment of The Children's Hospital owe a cordial co-operation and valuable counsel; and in joining with the early history of the Hospital the memory of Mrs. CHANDLER ROBBINS, the Managers are sure that they honor an Institution which had her fervent love and her earnest prayers.

In addition to the pecuniary assistance kindly given us, the Managers take pleasure in acknowledging, from various persons, the receipt of house-stores, linen, clothing; furniture, toys, and pictures, all of which have been very useful, and have saved our treasury serious diminution. During the summer, as in the previous year, we found our wards cheered by the presence of flowers from the Hollis Street Association. All such donations are duly acknowledged by the Lady Superintendent, in another part of the Report.

The amount received from all sources, as appears by the annexed Report of the Treasurer, is $12,091.41. Of this sum, $1,618.95 are credited to subscriptions and donations; $1,947.94, to Fairs and proceeds of musical and other entertainments; $532.03, to board paid for patients; $32.81, to the alms-chest in the Hospital.

The expenses incurred during the past year, as will be seen by the Treasurer's Report, are proportionally larger than those of the previous six months: this is to be attributed to the increased accommodations.

The medical attendance of the Hospital has been gratuitously rendered by a staff of physicians and surgeons. Their Report, appended, shows that the whole number of patients received during the year is sixty-nine: forty-nine males, and twenty females. Of these, thirty were medical cases, and thirty-nine surgical; eighty-three have been discharged, — thirty-nine well, twenty-seven relieved, &c.; seventeen still remain in the Hospital.

At the commencement of the year, Mr. Kuhn, a member of the first Board, declined a re-election, and his place was filled by the appointment of Mr. Edward A. Strong. The Board has remained unchanged through the year.

The Board of Managers deem it to be a very serious thing to publish a Report: their character for veracity is as much implicated in this as in any thing else. They believe they can truthfully say, that The Children's Hospital is filling a void in the Charities of the city, and they desire to impress the minds of its friends and the benevolent public with the fact. To the Medical Staff of the Hospital and to the minds of very many of the medical profession of Boston, it has become apparent that medical cases, and cases of accident, of deformity, and of disease requiring skilful surgical treatment and appliances, have been treated here as they could not have been treated elsewhere; and this, because of intelligent nursing, voluntary devotion to the task of carrying out in the most faithful manner the directions of the physician, who cannot always be at hand. This it is that gives superiority of treatment; for we firmly believe that no city in the country, perhaps not in the world, possesses greater skill and science within its medical corps than exists at the present moment here in Boston: therefore it is not to be supposed that we vaunt our professional staff over all others, but that, while we give credit to them, we also bestow it largely upon their accessories. For look at it for a moment: what would a little child do, who has had, for instance, an excision of the knee? Not weeks, but months, must he lie upon his bed, his limb in one position all the time, at first suffering pain day and night (think of it!): what must be his life during all this time? Would not neighbors, friends, and even relatives lose faith as to his restoration, and constancy in their attendance upon him? Most likely. But see such a one with always some kindly nurse by his side; this picture pleases for a little; then, here is a toy; now, for a story; tired of his nurse? then here is another to take her place; there is a relay, and the tedious hours are beguiled, until sleep, blessed sleep, comes to him.

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter.” The Hospital should be largely endowed. The great need of the Institution is money. The Charity should not stand just as it is: it should, and we believe it will, take rank with the largest; for it is already as important as any. It should not be, nay, it will not be, in vain that we ask for means to place it on a sure and permanent basis.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

WM. INGALLS,
Chairman.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL STAFF.

There were remaining at last Report	14 patients.
Received and treated during the year	69 „
	— 83
49 males ; 20 females.
30 medical ; 39 surgical.

The result of treatment has been as follows : —

Discharged well	39
Discharged relieved	13
Discharged not relieved	3
Discharged not treated	6
Died	5
Remaining	17
	— 83
Discharged previous to December 28, 1869	16
Whole number to this date	99

The deaths of the five children were caused by the following named diseases: dysentery; muscular sclerosis; valvular disease of heart following rheumatism, and complicated with phthisis; cancrum oris, or gangrenous stomatitis; morbus coxæ, or disease of hip.

In the “Boston Medical and Surgical Journal” for September 29, 1870, there is a full report of an interesting and important surgical case; and in the same “Journal” for November 17, one of a medical case.

It will be seen by the table accompanying this that, as we receive a larger number of patients, the variety of disease increases; and material for interesting and instructive reports must be constantly accumulating.

The staff cheerfully attest to what has been written in another place concerning the skill and efficiency of those who have had the charge of the little ones.

For the Medical Staff,

WM. INGALLS,

Secretary.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once, by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Report.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates; not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS, between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical and surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the Medical Staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IN presenting their Third Annual Report, the Managers of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL feel justified in congratulating the Corporation on the continued and increasing success of their Institution, which has been steadily gaining the interest and confidence of the community and of medical men, and may now be regarded as an established public charity.

During the past year the number of children received as inmates has been ninety-seven; making the total, since the opening of the Hospital, one hundred and ninety-six.

It must be a source of gratification to every benevolent individual to learn that the Hospital has been the means of ministering not only to the physical relief, but also to the moral and spiritual benefit of so many suffering little ones. Most of the patients have, as a matter of course, been received from the poorer classes of the community; indeed, in many cases, from the very lowest; from abodes of drunkenness, and vice in almost every form, where the most depressing and corrupting influences were acting both upon the body and the mind. To remove a sick child from such surroundings we have felt to be an end worthy to be attained, were it only that his last days might be spent in a home of purity, comfort, and peace. It is known to all medical men that poor food, want of pure air, and uncleanness are fruitful sources of disease. The condition of ignorance which marks the lower classes of the community is constantly acting to debase the tone of society ; it allows only the lowest wages for labor, and it leads to the squandering in improvidence for successive generations of that which might afford comfortable support. Agencies such as these are constantly at work to lower the vital force of the poorer classes of society, and to render the children an easy prey to the attacks of disease. The aim of all judicious medical treatment is directed not alone to relieve immediate disease, but, by a thorough change of life and circumstances, by supplying a rational course of diet and regimen, by substituting for ignorance and thoughtlessness, and the thousand indiscretions which they suggest, judicious and gentle nursing, warmth, nourishment, light, and air, to lay the best foundation for relief from disease, either acute or chronic.

Such facts as these are constantly seen by the visitors of the poor, convincing them that depressing agencies are continually working in the homes of poverty ; that they are the most natural and most prolific causes of disease ; and that, when disease comes, they still constitute the chief hinderance in the way of recovery. The inmates of The Children's Hospital have, almost invariably, been subjected to influences such as those we have mentioned. It has given the liveliest satisfaction to those having the care of the patients to see them, under a changed course of life, rise above the diseases which poverty has brought upon them, and tend toward health and soundness. Indeed, in many cases, we can confidently assert that children have been snatched from death and restored to life by the attention they have received at the Hospital. In offering to the poor, therefore, an institution where their sick children may be judiciously and kindly cared for, the Managers feel that a good has been done which should merit the confidence of the public, and that the benevolence of the community will not fail to make it permanent.

Desiring, as they do, that the Hospital may become more fully and favorably known, the Managers would gladly interest the community in its practical working; they therefore cordially invite the friends of children to visit the Institution and see for themselves what is being done for the suffering little ones,—and they feel sure that such a visit will amply repay those who are at liberty to make it. Those accustomed to watch children know that they quickly yield to the circumstances under which they are placed. The collection of children in our rooms has little of that sombreness or that air of unquietness which one sees in the usual hospital ward; their very aggregation is a blessing. The cheery spirit of childhood, in which the sunshine ever conquers the shadow, joined with that blessed unconsciousness of the possible troubles which their sickness forebodes, makes the wards of our Hospital a scene of mirth and frolic, rather than one of suffering. These very traits in childhood have always made our Institution an agreeable visiting-place for both old and young. Such characteristics, moreover, serve as valuable auxiliaries in the medical treatment. A merry frolic, a kindly word, a pleasant smile are agencies which every wise physician strives to employ in his care of children's diseases, and regards as more potent than drugs. To visit and become interested in the Hospital, to cheer and encourage the little patients by word or counsel, will confer a favor on them and those who have the care of them. The affection of children is worth gaining ; their smiles are benedictions which any one may prize ; and such rewards as these we are able to promise to those who will, in a kindly spirit, become our visitors.

During the year just closed, the Hospital has been continued in the house No. 1429, Washington Street, which still furnishes sufficient room for our present purposes, together with an abundance of light and air. The immediate supervision of the house, and the care and nursing of the patients have been intrusted, as in past years, to cultivated Christian ladies, and the Board feel it no less a privilege than a duty again to express a grateful recognition of their devoted, skilful, and gratuitous labors ; and of hers especially whose constant and unwearying services have been freely rendered, for the sake of the children, from the opening of the Hospital to the present day ; nor would they fail to mention the kindness of many other ladies, whose visits, from time to time, have done much to enliven, cheer, and instruct our little patients. Under such supervision many a friendless child has found true comfort, and some, who have never known care or affection, have awaked to the new delight of sympathy. The system of voluntary nursing, with which the Hospital started, so successful in many institutions in Europe and this country, has been productive of great good with us, and the Managers hope in the future to continue and extend the benefits which such a method furnishes.

The medical attendance of the Hospital has been gratuitously rendered by a staff of physicians and surgeons. Their Report, which is appended, shows that the whole number of patients received during the year is ninety-seven : fifty-eight males and thirty-nine females ; thirty-one medical and sixty-six surgical ; eighty-eight have been discharged, — fifty-nine well, twenty-nine relieved, &c. ; nine have died, and seventeen remain under treatment.

The Board of Managers wish once more to express their warm sense of gratitude to the Ladies' Aid Association for their constant, kindly, and generous assistance during the past year. As in the previous history of the Hospital, these ladies have been untiring in their devotion, and to them we are indebted for a large supply of household linen, clothing, furniture, and apparatus, — articles which are indispensable in the proper management of the Institution. These gifts have been acknowledged in full in the lists appended to the Report. We also take pleasure in announcing, in like manner, the names of the members of the Ladies' Aid Association, with the sums severally subscribed by them.

By reference to the Report of the Treasurer it will be seen that the Managers have received the sum of five thousand dollars from the trustees in charge of the estate of Miss Nabby Joy ; also one thousand dollars from the trustees under the will of the late Abbott Lawrence. We have received also, toward the support of the Hospital, various sums, the proceeds of fairs, and musical and other entertainments. For some of these favors we are indebted to children, whose tender hearts have been touched by the silent appeal made by our little friends. All such gifts are doubly grateful ; for they not only give us material assistance, but furnish an evidence of sympathy among both young and old which gives us courage for the continuance of our work. To all those who have thus aided us we tender our grateful acknowledgments.

The Managers also remember with gratitude gifts from many friends of the Hospital of various articles which are useful in the administration, such as linen, clothing, bandages, stores, fruits and vegetables, flowers, toys and other articles, all of which have served a good purpose, and the receipt of which has saved our treasury serious diminution.

The Report of the Treasurer, which is annexed, shows that the amount received from all sources during the year, is $22,367.07. Of this sum $4,619.25 is credited to donations and subscriptions ; $755.07, to fairs and entertainments ; $513.50, to board paid for patients ; and $28.91, to the alms-chest in the Hospital.

The expense incurred during the past year for the actual support of the Hospital, as will be seen by the Treasurer's Report, is $7,729.04.

The Managers, in presenting a Report of the condition of the Hospital for the past year, respectfully represent to the benevolent public their earnest conviction of the importance of the charity of which they have the charge ; they call to mind the fact that numbers of sick and maimed children have been removed from homes where they failed to receive that tender nursing which was essential to their comfort, and from the presence of faulty hygienic conditions. By the advantages which the Hospital offers, such children have been placed in a situation most favorable for recovery where such a result was possible. A very large proportion of these patients have been restored to the community, entirely or partially relieved of their maladies, and with constitutions so strengthened and invigorated by good food, regimen, and medical treatment that they will become more vigorous and better members of society. In view of these advantages, the Managers cordially invite the sympathy of benevolent individuals, in order that the benefits of this charity may be continued and extended. This Institution, in which many of our best citizens have felt the liveliest interest since its foundation, is now in need of assistance ; and the Managers are desirous of raising funds for its immediate use, and to secure its future prosperity. They urge on the public to take into consideration the subject of sustaining a charitable institution which cannot fail of appealing to the heart, — which has for its object the medical and surgical treatment of the sick children of our community.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

FRANCIS H. BROWN,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once, by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Report.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates; not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association:—

President.

Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP Brookline.

Vice-President.

Mrs. WM. W. TUCKER 98, Beacon Street.

Treasurer.

Miss C. A. BREWER 29, Beacon Street.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS, between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the Medical Staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IN submitting to our friends and fellow-citizens the following brief Statement of the condition of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, we should be unjust to them and to ourselves if we failed to impress upon them a distinct idea of the critical state of our finances.

We have gone along for nearly four years in what may be called the trial of an experiment. That experiment has succeeded, even beyond our hopes, in every particular, except in securing for the Institution such permanent endowments, or such annual or occasional contributions, as are vitally necessary for the continuance of our work.

During the past year the number of children received as inmates has been eighty-two; making the total, since the opening of the Hospital in July, 1869, two hundred and seventy-eight.

The office of Lady-Superintendent having become vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Tyler, on account of enfeebled health, the Managers were fortunate in obtaining the gratuitous services of Sister Theresa, of the Sisterhood of St. Margaret's, East Grinstead, England, — a lady admirably qualified by nature, education, and hospital experience for all her duties. Under her management, all the internal affairs of the Hospital have been most successfully administered. Her remarkable skill and tenderness as a nurse are equalled by her peculiar power of winning the affection of the children, who love and cling to her as a mother. Her beautiful influence, as every visitor has noticed, has given to the Hospital the air of a pleasant home. She has received from time to time the welcome assistance of other Christian ladies, who have desired no other remuneration than the satisfaction of ministering to the relief of the little sufferers.

The Ladies' Aid Association have continued to manifest the most cordial interest on behalf of the Hospital and its patients, to whose comfort and enjoyment they have largely contributed, as well by personal visits and attentions as by substantial gifts. During the year they have cut and made for the use of the Institution seven hundred and ninety-four articles.

The Medical Staff have gratuitously rendered their valuable professional services; two of their number having visited the Hospital daily during the year. Their Report, which is appended, shows that the whole number of patients received during the year is eighty-two: thirty-eight boys and forty-four girls; twenty-four medical and fifty-eight surgical; seventy-five have been discharged, — thirty-six well, thirty-four relieved, &c.; five have died, and twenty-four remain under treatment.

The Report of the Treasurer, which is annexed, shows that the amount received during the year from all sources is $8,305.91. Of this sum $5,985.31 are credited to donations and subscriptions; to board for patients, $408.

The expense incurred during the year for rent, for all house expenses, repairs, printing, stationery, &c., is $9,277.62.

The Managers gratefully record the kindness of those friends of the Hospital whose gifts of money, clothing, fruits, flowers, or other useful or ornamental articles, have contributed to the comfort and happiness of its inmates.

We had anticipated that the way would have been clear, before the close of the year, for making a strong and successful appeal to the community for such pecuniary aid as should place the Hospital beyond the danger of future want. But the recent disastrous conflagration has rendered such an appeal untimely; and we can now only state our case in the plainest terms, and commend our necessities to the kind consideration of those who may still be able and willing to help us.

We do not believe that such an Institution would willingly be let die for want of a few thousand dollars per annum. We cannot believe that the continued care of these little invalids is a matter of unconcern to the benevolent hearts of the good people around us. We cannot believe that sufficient contributions will not be furnished in season to prevent us from exhausting our little invested fund in defraying our current expenses.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

ROBERT C. WINTHROP,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once, by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates; not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association: —

Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP Brookline.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS, between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Managers of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, in presenting their Fifth Annual Report, desire to congratulate their friends and the public at large, that during the past year, which has been so full of misfortune in business, and financial distress, the Hospital has been steadily and firmly growing, and is now better prepared for work, with larger means at its command than at any previous time.

This improvement is, in the main, accounted for in the fact that in their last Annual Report there was a very urgent call for help; and, at that time, grave doubts were entertained whether the Hospital would not be obliged to close from lack of support, inasmuch as the expenditures were larger than the receipts, and the end of the year found it in debt. The accompanying Report of the Treasurer, however, by its record of numerous contributors, as well as valuable contributions, shows pretty clearly that all questions of that kind have been put at rest.

So liberally have the public responded, that the Managers look forward to the time when they can put the Hospital on a firmer foundation, and gradually enlarge its accommodations to make room for more patients.

It is very gratifying to see, and also one of the brightest prospects for this Hospital to have, in the list of contributions, so many from little children, and from the proceeds of so many little fairs and other entertainments gotten up by them; as it shows that they are, early in life, learning about and acquiring a deep interest in and sympathy for the sufferings of others, which interest and sympathy will only increase with years.

Among other noble deeds, the Sale recently held in Chestnut Street, under the management of a committee of ladies of Boston, deserves especial mention, not only for the pecuniary success, but also for the indication of kindly feeling in the hearts of the citizens.

The Managers do not intend, in the slightest degree, to intimate that the Hospital can get along another year with any less activity and benevolence on the part of its friends; on the contrary, as a large part of its receipts have been funded, it depends almost entirely for its daily life upon the daily contributions, and the larger its sphere the more money is required. They therefore caution all those who are interested in this charity not to allow any apparent prosperity to turn away, in the slightest degree, the hearts which have been drawn towards the Hospital when the prospect was dark; nor to suppose that others, who may become as able so to do as themselves, will be willing to carry on the good work without their assistance. In order to foster a proper and growing interest in the Institution, there should be not only larger contributions, but a larger number of individual contributors.

In this connection it is proper to call attention to the new form of certificate of life membership, recently prepared, and now ready for all persons becoming life members, on the payment of the sum provided in the By-laws.

If every reader of this Report would take the time and trouble to call at the Hospital on one of the visiting-days, and see for himself the convenient arrangements of the house; the cleanliness and neatness of each ward, and of the beds and other furniture and articles there; the tenderness and anxious care of the Lady Superintendent and her corps of nurses for each sick child; the air of comfort which all this brings, even to those lying in pain upon the beds; and the little happy faces of the children, each provided with his or her own playthings, — there would be no need for any special call for help, as these scenes would plead stronger than any description of them on paper. One can see how much comfort even a small amount of money produces among those poor little ones, who perhaps have some new pain or ache every day, or grow weary with their hard lot.

The Managers consider the Hospital fortunate in having the strong and generous support of the members of the Ladies' Aid Association, who have during the past, as in previous years, been unceasing in their work, and have furnished a large amount of money and material for its use.

The Managers are again glad to acknowledge the skilful and faithful services of Sister Theresa and other ladies of the Sisterhood of St. Margaret, to whose tender and devoted care many of the patients owe their lives, and all their comfort and happiness.

The Medical Staff have rendered gratuitously a greater amount of service than in any previous year, from the fact that the number of patients admitted has increased almost twenty-five per cent, as indicated by their Report, which is appended hereto. The whole number received during the year is ninety-nine: forty-eight boys and fifty-one girls; forty-two medical and sixty-seven surgical; one hundred and two have been discharged, — forty-six well, thirty relieved, &c.; seven have died, and twenty-one remain under treatment. The whole number received to this date is three hundred and seventy-seven.

For the coming year it is confidently expected that the number will increase in the same ratio, as each day the Hospital becomes wider known and better understood, and parents become more ready and willing to entrust their tender children to its care.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

C. H. FISKE,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once, by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates; not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association : —

President.

Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP 90, Marlboro' Street.

Vice-President.

Mrs. WM. W. TUCKER 98, Beacon Street.

Treasurer.

Miss C. A. BREWER 29, Beacon Street.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS, between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Managers of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, at the close of another year, feel that they may again assure their friends that the Institution has been going forward satisfactorily, doing its quiet, successful work, adding daily to the benefits it confers upon children of the poorer classes, and increasing constantly in the favor of the public.

During the past year we have treated one hundred and thirty-three children, and have been compelled, in consequence of limited accommodation, to refuse admission to many others who have applied for relief. We therefore feel it is an established fact that the Hospital supplies a want which may justly be considered imperative.

We have discharged sixty-six per cent of our patients, well or relieved. We have administered comfort to many suffering children whose pain has been of the sharpest, and have smoothed the dying pillow of others whose illness terminated fatally ; and thus have striven to accomplish a work which must commend itself to every benevolent heart.

In the early part of the year the Managers considered a plan — which had been suggested in the first days of the Hospital — of establishing a Sanitarium in the country for the accommodation of convalescents. It was thought that much advantage would result to patients by giving them change of scene and air, and that diseases which had failed to respond to medical treatment and good regimen alone, would be hastened to a cure by these agencies.

In the month of July accommodations were secured for six children, with one lady and a nurse, in the town of Weston. The plan contemplated exchanges of the patients at appropriate intervals, so that during the months of July and August nineteen children received the benefit of country air, in a high, salubrious spot, remaining on an average nearly three weeks each at the Sanitarium.

The great advantage accruing to the children was at once apparent. They returned to the city with constitutions much improved, and far better able to cope with the diseases under which they had been laboring.

The Managers believe fully that the Sanitarium is an important adjunct of the Hospital, and will, without doubt, continue it in the future.

At the last meeting of the Board it was decided to adopt the suggestion of the Medical Staff, to organize a Department for Out Patients, for the treatment of such children as do not require medical care within the Hospital, and the same will be opened at an early day in rooms adjacent, under the care of the Medical Staff, where children will be treated at stated hours.

The Medical Staff have continued their gratuitous services, as shown in previous reports, two of their number having visited the Hospital daily during the year. Their report, presented herewith, shows that the number of patients received is one hundred and twelve: fifty-one boys and sixty-one girls; fifty-seven medical, and fifty-five surgical. One hundred and eighteen have been discharged: fifty-one well, thirty-six relieved, &c. Thirteen have died.

The Managers take pleasure in again acknowledging the faithful, unremitting labors of the devoted Christian women who watch over the inner workings of the Institution. They have been constant in their attentions to the children, at all hours and seasons; their professional services being so skilfully rendered as to supplement satisfactorily the duties of the Medical Staff.

The Managers gratefully recognize the important services of the Ladies' Aid Association, through whose kind ministrations the Hospital has been liberally supplied with linen, clothing, bandages, and numerous small but necessary articles. These gifts have been acknowledged in full in the list appended to the report.

We also thankfully acknowledge gifts from many friends of the Hospital, of fruits, flowers, toys, clothing, &c.; all of which have served a good purpose, and given comfort and delight to the patients under our charge; we take especial pleasure in referring to the gifts from children, who often come to the Hospital bearing their own donations. The Managers also feel it their duty to note the quiet visits of ladies of the Hollis Street and the Shawmut Universalist Flower Missions, whose fresh bouquets are a constant source of gratification.

At the commencement of the year Mr. Edward A. Strong declined re-election as a member of the Board, and Mr. E. R. Mudge was chosen to supply his place.

The Managers feel justified, in this their Sixth Report, in asking not only the continued support of the community for the Institution under their charge, but such farther aid as may put the Hospital on a permanent basis, by supplying it with a building for its own use.

The Hospital has now been in existence five years and a half, and in that time has relieved nearly five hundred children suffering diseases requiring medical or surgical treatment. A large proportion have been discharged well, or much improved,—a result which will compare favorably with the figures presented by any hospital; while to all this physical benefit may be added the sum of moral good exerted directly upon child-nature, through the potent influence of well-directed sympathy.

Patients of The Children's Hospital come mostly from the very poorest classes of the community, in the worst possible condition for restorative treatment. It is well known that the combined evils of poverty tend to cause a chronic condition of all the complaints of childhood, inducing symptoms and conditions which yield reluctantly to medical treatment.

With increased accommodation for patients, and especially with wards for the satisfactory treatment of contagious diseases, which are so fatal among the poorer classes, the Managers can promise greatly increased usefulness.

Ever since the Hospital was founded, the Managers have been hampered and restricted in their endeavors by the limited amount of space at their command. They have felt that it was impracticable to receive patients with diseases of a contagious nature, and have constantly striven to avoid it ; but, spite of their best efforts, such cases may creep in at times, to the great hazard of established inmates.

In a hospital properly constituted, and with judicious arrangements for isolation of severe cases, an important class of suffering poor children might and should be received and treated.

The desire of the management is, never to turn away from the Hospital doors a sick child whose parents are unable to take care of it at home ; yet this they are constantly compelled to do, for the means and space at their command are totally inadequate to the charitable work which has grown upon them.

The Managers place these considerations before the wealthy and the benevolent, conscious of their great importance to the successful administration of this charity.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

JERE. ABBOTT,
Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once, by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates; not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association:—

President.

Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP 90, Marlboro' Street.

Vice-President.

Mrs. WM. W. TUCKER 98, Beacon Street.

Treasurer.

Miss C. A. BREWER 29, Beacon Street.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS, between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

The Board of Managers feel it incumbent on them, in an especial manner, to call the attention of the community to the facts contained in the Annual Report of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL for 1875. They wish to assure the friends of children that this valuable auxiliary to the Charitable Institutions of our city is actively and successfully doing its work of ministering to the sick and maimed little ones. Within the few years of its existence 634 children have received the care of the Institution, and the number treated during the past twelve months is larger than in any previous year.

Under these circumstances the Managers feel it necessary to make an urgent appeal to all the friends of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, and to the friends of children everywhere, for such increase of our means as shall make the Institution more fully a success. It is now actually in need of money for its current expenses and to secure its successful continuance in the future. The Managers earnestly solicit donations, to be paid either by annual subscriptions or in single sums, for the benefit of an Institution which must commend itself so warmly to the sympathies of a Christian community.

The Committee on soliciting subscriptions will make an early call on the public. Any contributions in aid of the Hospital will be gratefully received by either member of the Board of Managers.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

AT the close of another year, the Board of Managers again place before the public a record of the Institution under their charge. The past twelve months have been interesting and important ones in our history. We have been called on to receive and treat a larger number of patients than in any previous year, and the cases presented to our notice have been such as have called for skilful and tender care on the part of all our officers. We are confident that many lives have been saved, and many children restored to health and soundness; and we feel cause for gratitude that success has so uniformly attended our efforts.

It is not the least agreeable evidence of the success of the Hospital that it is fast growing in the esteem of the poorer classes; that fathers and mothers come again and again, with thanks on their lips for the comfort given them and their little ones, and speak of us in kindly terms to their neighbors and friends. We feel still further grateful that so many friends have been raised up among all classes of the community; that the love of children has been strengthened by our efforts; and that we have received so cordial an expression of the sympathy and regard of the benevolent public.

During the year just closed, a hundred and sixty children have been treated for medical and surgical diseases or accidents, with a percentage of recoveries, or marked improvement, of a very favorable character.

At the opening of the year, the Managers established a Department for Out Patients, for the treatment of such children as did not require the immediate care of the Hospital, but who might be kept by their parents at their homes. This department has been attended by the medical officers of the Hospital, at a room secured for the purpose at No. 1525 (1725) Washington Street, on three days in the week, and has been continued in operation to the present time. The expenses of fitting and furnishing the room for this purpose, and the current expenses, were guaranteed, and have been, in large part, paid by one person, a warm friend of the Institution.

Although the Department for Out Patients has, in the opinion of the Managers, been productive of much good in its present situation, they have felt that much more benefit could be obtained, and the service might be more easily rendered by the medical officers, by removing it to the Hospital itself. A change to this effect will therefore be made on the first of the coming month.

The experiment which was made by the Managers, during the year 1874, of establishing a summer home for convalescents, met with such decided success, and the advantages accruing to the children were so marked, that the Board felt that some permanent arrangement ought to be made for its continuance. Before they had taken measures to carry out their designs, they received an intimation from another source that arrangements had already been entered upon to secure a result at once so gratifying and so beneficial.

Among the warmest friends of the patients at The Children's Hospital may be numbered the members of the Ladies' Aid Association. From the earliest days of the Institution, this band of benevolent ladies has been constantly and actively engaged in providing many of the minor necessities of the patients; and to them the Managers are indebted for an abundant supply of clothing, linen, flowers, toys, &c., as well as for friendly visits, and a warm personal interest in the welfare of the Hospital.

The officers of the Ladies' Aid Association have not only had in view the furnishing of such articles of necessity, but, by a wise forethought and a judicious husbanding of their resources, they have accumulated means to offer to the Managers a Convalescent Home in the country for the use of the patients. In this way they were enabled, during the past summer, to put into the hands of the Managers a house in the suburbs admirably adapted to the purpose desired, have supplied it with appropriate furniture, and paid the entire expense of the same for the year.*

The Managers of the Hospital, impressed with the importance of giving a change of air and scene to the patients under their care, and of affording a more satisfactory system of treatment for certain diseases incident to children in the summer season, gratefully accepted the offer of the Association, and have carried it on as a department of the Hospital.

The Convalescent Home was established in a suitable house, with pleasant surroundings, at a short distance from the station in Wellesley, fourteen miles from Boston, on the Boston and Albany Railroad. It was suitably furnished to accommodate twelve patients, and was placed in charge of the sisterhood on duty at the Hospital. The Home was opened on the 30th of May, and was closed on the 15th of October. In this time, thirty-nine children received the benefits of the country air, the sunshine, and the freedom of the fields.

The medical staff have, during the past year, been in constant attendance on the patients, two of their number having visited the Hospital each day. Their report, which is appended, shows that the number of patients received is one hundred and forty-five: sixty-eight boys, and seventy-seven girls; seventy-two medical, and seventy-three surgical. One hundred and thirty-four have been discharged; sixty-nine well, twenty-three relieved, &c.; and sixteen have died.

* The expense of fitting and furnishing the Convalescent Home was $1,125.48; and of carrying it on during the summer, $715.78.

The Managers again desire to record their grateful appreciation of the skilful and tender services so cordially rendered, as in years gone by, by the ladies of the Sisterhood of St. Margaret. The Managers have at all times felt that the faithfulness and the devotion of these Christian ladies were the surest safeguard of the well-being of the patients; and they are glad to repeat the expression of the confidence they have in them.

The Board of Managers feel it a duty to recognize with gratitude the many kind services rendered by other friends of the Hospital; by the visits which have been so frequently made to the children; by the donations of money, articles of household use and clothing, of flowers and toys, all of which have served a good purpose in meeting the wants of the Institution, and in materially lightening the drafts on the treasury.

In the early part of the year, the Managers were called on to mourn the death of Mr. ALBERT FEARING, after a long, useful, and truly honorable life; one of the original corporators of the Hospital, and, to the day of his death, one of its warmest friends. At their meeting in June, the Board adopted a series of resolutions, embodying their sense of deep regret at his loss, and of their appreciation of his character. In the words of the resolutions, they felt that his important services to the Hospital, his wise counsels in its management, his zealous and constant co-operation in the conduct of its affairs, his tender interest in behalf of its little patients, and the munificent proof of his attachment to it, and of his high appreciation of its utility, which he has left behind him in his last testament, entitle him to the warmest gratitude of all its supporters and friends, and to be recorded as one of its noblest founders and benefactors.

At a subsequent meeting, the Board elected Mr. Alanson Bigelow to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Fearing.

The Hospital has also, during the year, lost another warm friend in the person of Mrs. ADALINE TYLER,—a lady whose large experience in good works, and her many excellent qualities of mind and heart, peculiarly fitted her to fill the place she held, for more than two years, of Superintendent of the Institution. Her admirable powers of organization, manifested in the earliest days of the existence of the Hospital; her dignified, skilful, and kindly services; and the continued interest she manifested in our success to the last days of her life, inspired, in officers and friends of The Children's Hospital, a respect and esteem for which they desire to express the warmest appreciation.

At the close of the year, in which the Hospital has shown its great value to the poorer classes of the community, the Managers desire to urge upon its friends the great need which exists of means to place it on a more secure basis for its future growth and maintenance, such as they deem consistent with the true ordering of the charity intrusted to them. The Hospital has thus far ministered to the wants of six hundred and thirty-four sick and maimed children, and has given them the strength and health to make them better men and women, and better citizens. We are daily receiving louder calls for assistance from the poor, and the field for the exercise of judicious charity is constantly growing wider and more important. The building in which the Institution is now carried on is insufficient for its growing needs, and is in many ways inconvenient. The medical staff find themselves compelled to decline many cases which would be materially benefited by a temporary residence, and are prevented from offering their services in a large class of the diseases incident to childhood, which cannot well be cared for in the homes of the poorer classes.

To carry out their plans in a more efficient manner, and to place the Hospital on a more secure foundation for future usefulness, the Board of Managers urgently request the interest of the benevolent members of the community in their behalf. They are confident that the Hospital has already presented itself in so favorable a light to the community, that its continued maintenance, and its future development and growth, must present a powerful claim to the sympathy of the public. To those who have the true interest of humanity at heart, they earnestly appeal for co-operation in their work.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

FRANCIS H. BROWN,
Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates, not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association:—

President.

Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP 90, Marlboro' Street.

Vice-President.

Mrs. Wm. W. TUCKER 98, Beacon Street.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

It is now nearly eight years since The Children's Hospital was instituted. The gratifying results which a review of this period brings to light abundantly prove the force and wisdom of the considerations which led to its establishment.

The idea of a separate hospital for children is so reasonable and so attractive as to warrant and commend our attempt to carry it into effect, even without the knowledge of the marked success which has attended similar experiments abroad. The simple title of our Institution, however, fails to indicate all the elements which are comprehended in its plan. It is not designed merely to heal or alleviate physical diseases, although the best medical and surgical treatment, the most careful and tender nursing, and all the most approved appliances are provided for that end : it has also a special regard to the moral benefit of its little patients, — supplying such pure and genial influences as are found in a cultivated, Christian home ; at the same time, furnishing simple means of amusement, and various devices to beguile the hours of weariness and pain. The blending of these two objects — which are not only perfectly consistent with each other, but the latter of which is an important aid to the former — constitutes the peculiar character, and, as we believe, the superior advantage, of The Children's Hospital; and the successful manner in which this union has been accomplished in this Institution commends it to the interest and support of an intelligent and benevolent community.

The Managers are happy to acknowledge that this gratifying success is due to the fidelity, good judgment, and intelligent zeal of those to whom the immediate care of the patients, and the internal arrangements of the Hospital, have been intrusted. They have been fortunate in securing the gratuitous services of a medical staff, consisting of three Physicians and as many Surgeons, well qualified for the office, not only by professional skill, but by their humane sympathies; who, dividing the duty of daily visitation and treatment, have spared no pains to promote, in every way in their power, the comfort of the patients and the best interests of the Institution.

But, for the excellent condition and beneficent results of the Hospital, grateful acknowledgments are especially due to the Lady Superintendent and her Associates, who have devoted themselves to the care of the sick and suffering in the name and in the spirit of Him who took little children in his arms and blessed them. The former has filled her arduous and responsible office with a rare union of energy, sweetness, and dignity, and admirable tact; exerting an influence as benign as controlling; and, while exercising a general supervision, and attending to every detail, has shared with her associate sisters their daily and nightly ministry of nursing, watching, and soothing the little sufferers under her charge. With what tenderness, delicacy, and skill, these duties have been performed, can be fully appreciated only by the Physicians in attendance, and those officially connected with the Hospital, but may be inferred, even by the occasional visitor, from the perfect neatness and cleanliness of the several wards, the purity of the air, — never tainted by any sickly odors, — the contented, and even cheerful, countenances and pleasant voices of the children, their confiding affection for their nurses, the various arrangements for their comfort and diversion, — all together producing the impression rather of a well-ordered and happy home than of a hospital.

The Ladies' Aid Association has had an important part in promoting the success of the Hospital, and has added largely to its resources and accommodations. Besides neatly and tastefully furnishing the rooms, providing articles of clothing and use for the children, and many little comforts and means of amusement, and cheering and encouraging both the nurses and patients by personal visits, it has provided and fitted up a Convalescent Home, in the pleasant village of Wellesley, about fourteen miles from Boston. In a sanitary point of view, the value of this gift cannot be estimated too highly. During the past summer and autumn, fifteen patients at a time have been here provided for. The influence of the pure country air has been beneficial in every case, serving to complete a cure already begun, and having a favorable effect even in cases beyond recovery. But, even if its remedial power were less than it actually is, the delight which the children feel — many of whom have never been beyond the narrow and gloomy courts and alleys of the city — at finding themselves in the open air, in the broad and sweet fields, amidst flowers and birds, and the pleasant sights and sounds of the country, would be an ample return for all that the Home has cost.

But reference to the Home at Wellesley ought not to be made without a brief tribute to one long connected with the Hospital, of whose last earthly labors it was the scene. No one who has visited The Children's Hospital can have failed to notice the sweet face of Sister Letitia, shining with the mild light of a pure and disinterested heart, and her gentle and modest manners, — the ornament of a consecrated spirit. Though enfeebled by disease of the lungs, which she knew must soon terminate her life, yet, entirely forgetful of self, and only anxious to devote the little remnant of her time on earth to her chosen work, she undertook, in the early summer, the charge of the Home. But, her strength rapidly failing, she was soon obliged, reluctantly, to resign the duty to other hands; and, after a few weeks of much bodily suffering, rested from her labors. The death of Sister Ellen, another amiable and accomplished nurse, — whose valuable services to the Hospital are equally deserving of grateful recognition in this Report,—has occurred during the year. These vacancies have been at once supplied from the sisterhood to which the Hospital is so much indebted, and will, we believe, be faithfully and satisfactorily filled.

For all the gifts that have been received, in money, fruits, flowers, articles of apparel and use, books and toys,—even the smallest of which has a special value,—the Managers would publicly record their grateful acknowledgments.

Among the most welcome contributions have been those of little children,—the results of their own handiwork, or the proceeds of fairs, or other methods of obtaining money devised by themselves. They may see their donations acknowledged in the Treasurer's Report; but, if they could also see the comfort and happiness which their gifts have afforded to those whose pains and deprivations have touched their hearts, it would well repay them for their kind endeavors, and encourage them to continued labors of love.

In conclusion,—while rendering thanks to a merciful God for his continued favor to the Institution under their charge, and to many benefactors for every form of aid and encouragement,—the Managers would renewedly and earnestly urge its wants and claims upon the attention and thoughtful interest of the benevolent. The leased dwelling-house now occupied, though pleasant and airy, is neither large enough nor will admit of suitable divisions and arrangements and various requisite accommodations. There is urgent need of a building designed and constructed especially for a Hospital for Children. The importance of the object, the beneficent results which the Hospital has already accomplished, and the general and lively interest it has hitherto excited, encourage the hope and expectation that the funds needed for the erection of such an edifice will sooner or later be furnished. Meanwhile, contributions — large and small, and especially annual subscriptions and life memberships — are warmly solicited. Little children may be assured that their mite will be valued; and to those who are meditating benefactions which may bless the world after their departure, The Children's Hospital — providing, as it does, for the moral as well as the physical welfare of those whose angels are nearest to the throne of heaven — may be confidently recommended as a safe and sure medium through which their charitable purpose may be made effectual.

CHANDLER ROBBINS,

Chairman.

BOSTON, Dec. 28, 1876.

APPEAL OF THE MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers feel it incumbent on them, in an especial manner, to call the attention of the community to the facts contained in the Annual Report of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL for 1876. They wish to assure the friends of children that this valuable auxiliary to the Charitable Institutions of our city is actively and successfully doing its work of ministering to the sick and maimed little ones. Within the few years of its existence 772 children have received the care of the Institution, and the number treated during the past twelve months is larger than in any previous year.

Under these circumstances the Managers feel it necessary to make an urgent appeal to all the friends of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, and to the friends of children everywhere, for such increase of our means as shall make the Institution more fully a success. It is now actually in need of money for its current expenses and to secure its successful continuance in the future. The Managers earnestly solicit donations, to be paid either by annual subscriptions or in single sums, for the benefit of an Institution which must commend itself so warmly to the sympathies of a Christian community.

Any contributions in aid of the Hospital will be gratefully received by either member of the Board of Managers.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad, than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates, not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association:—

President.

Mrs. R. C. WINTHROP 90, Marlboro' Street.

Vice-President.

Mrs. WM. W. TUCKER 98, Beacon Street.

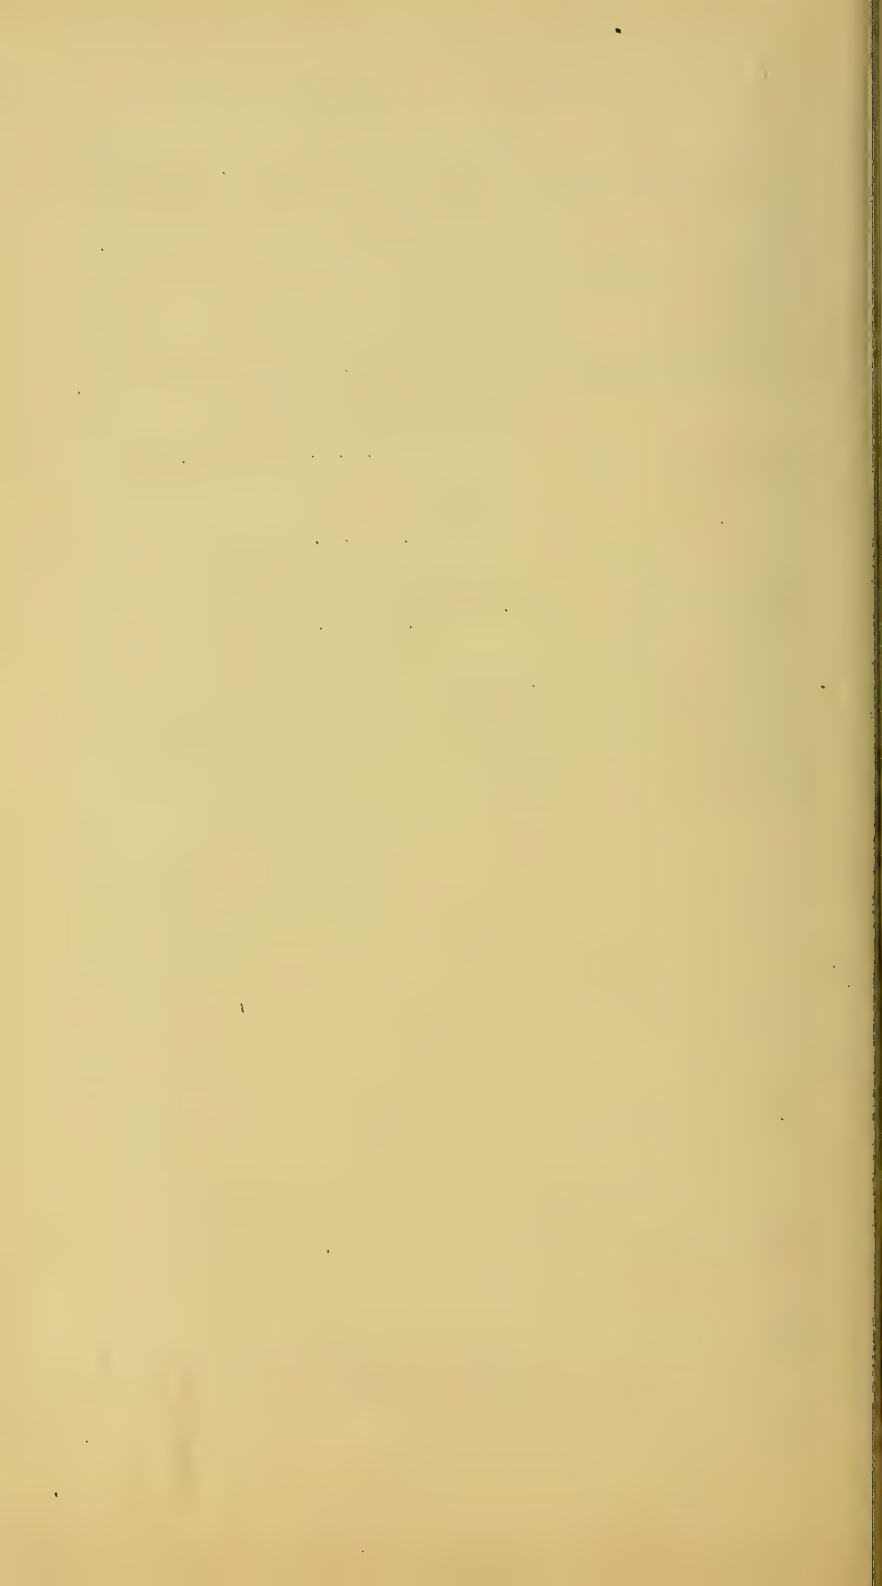

Treasurer.

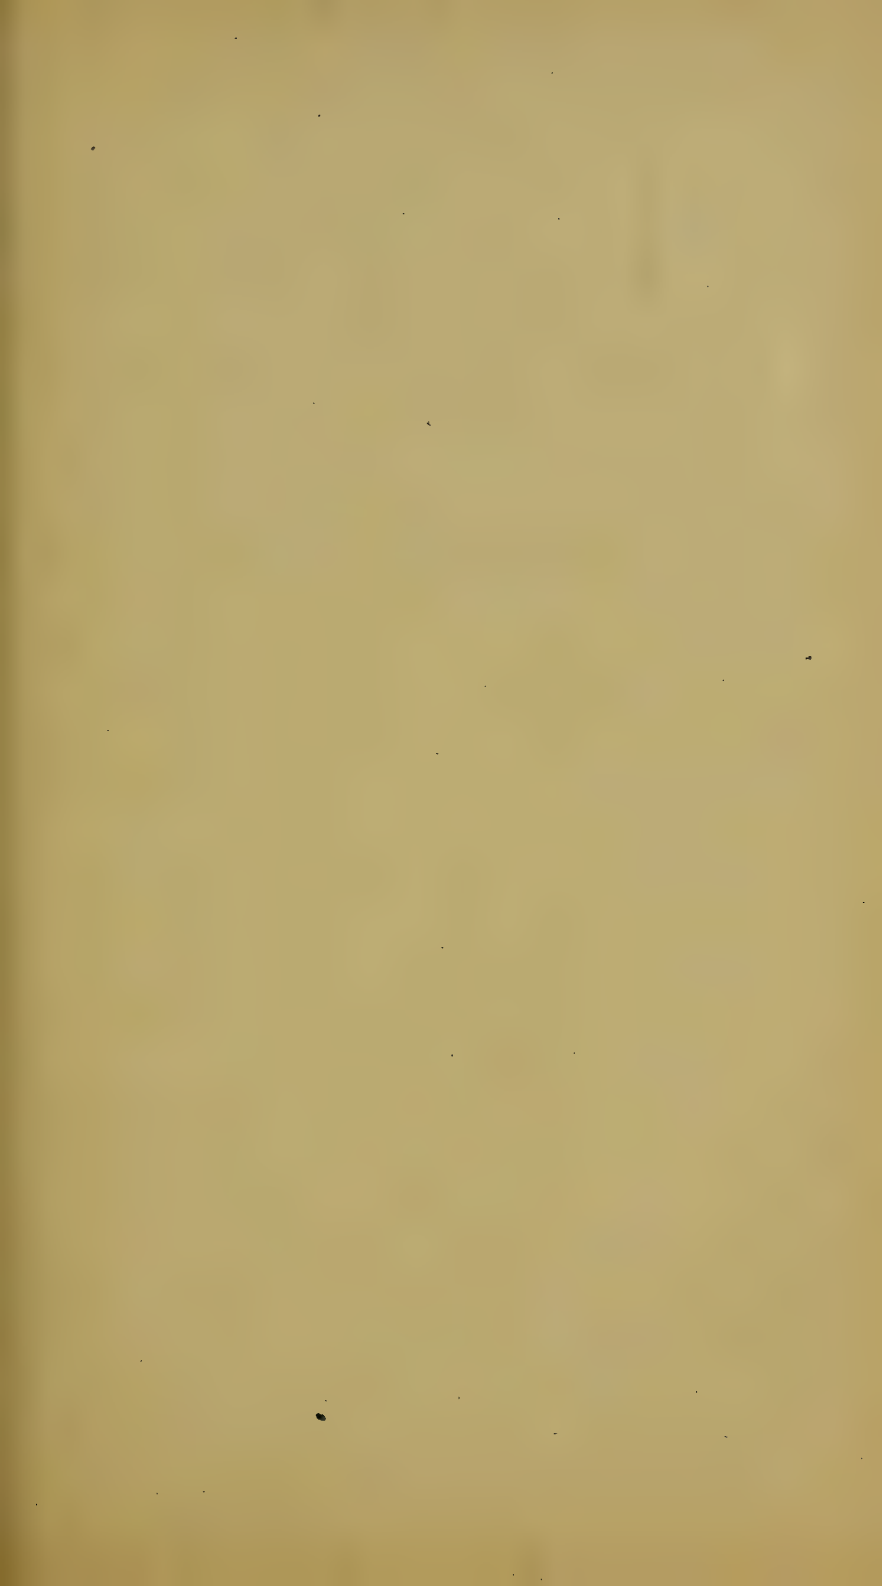

Miss C. A. BREWER 29, Beacon Street.

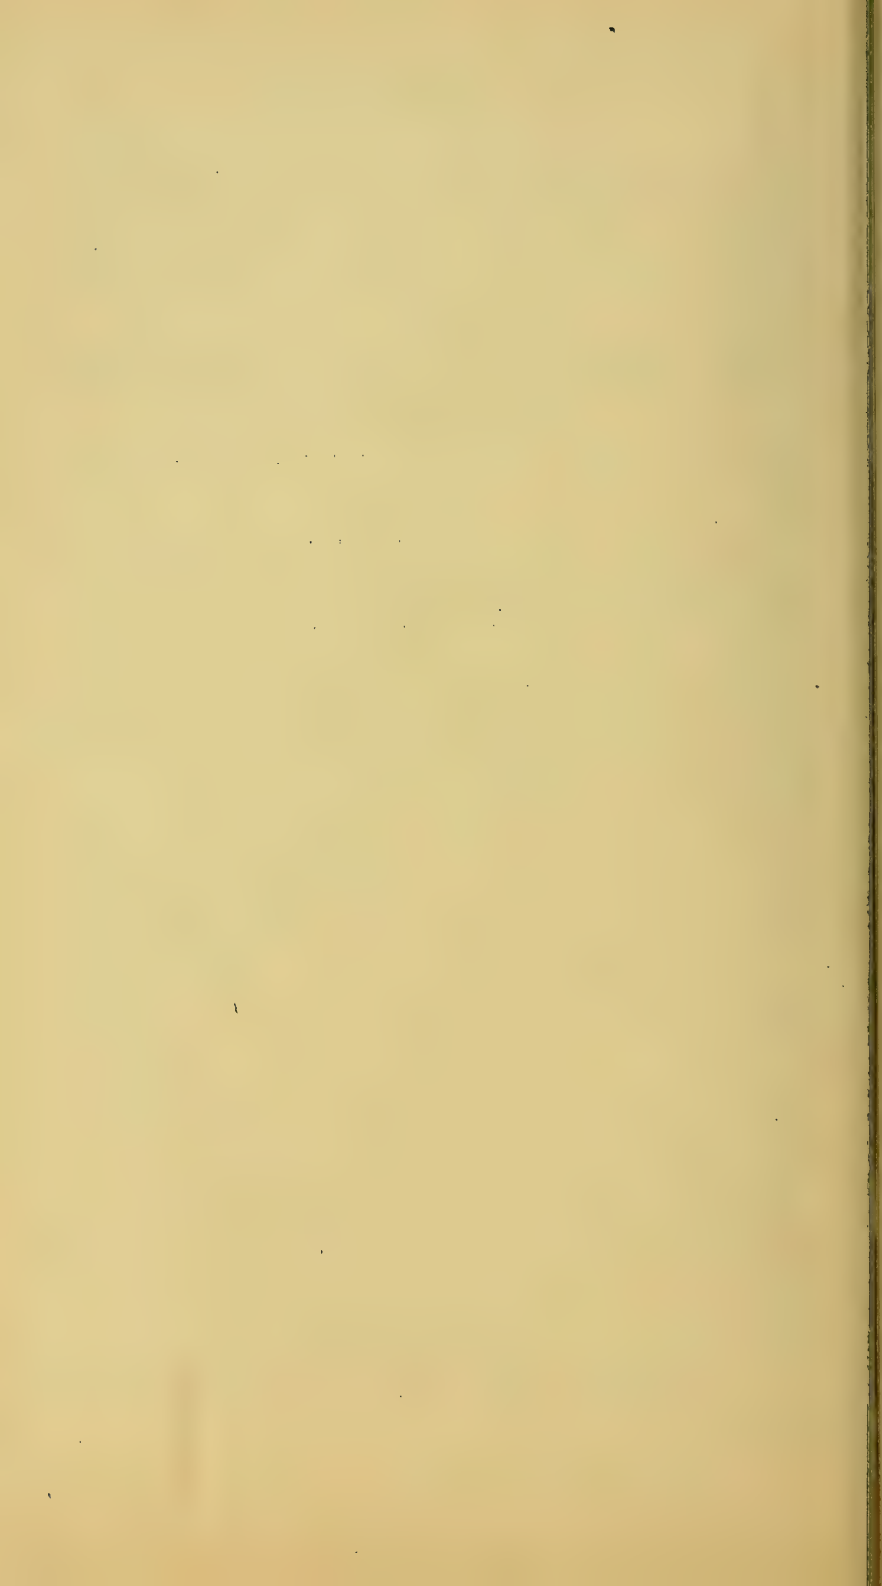

Secretary.

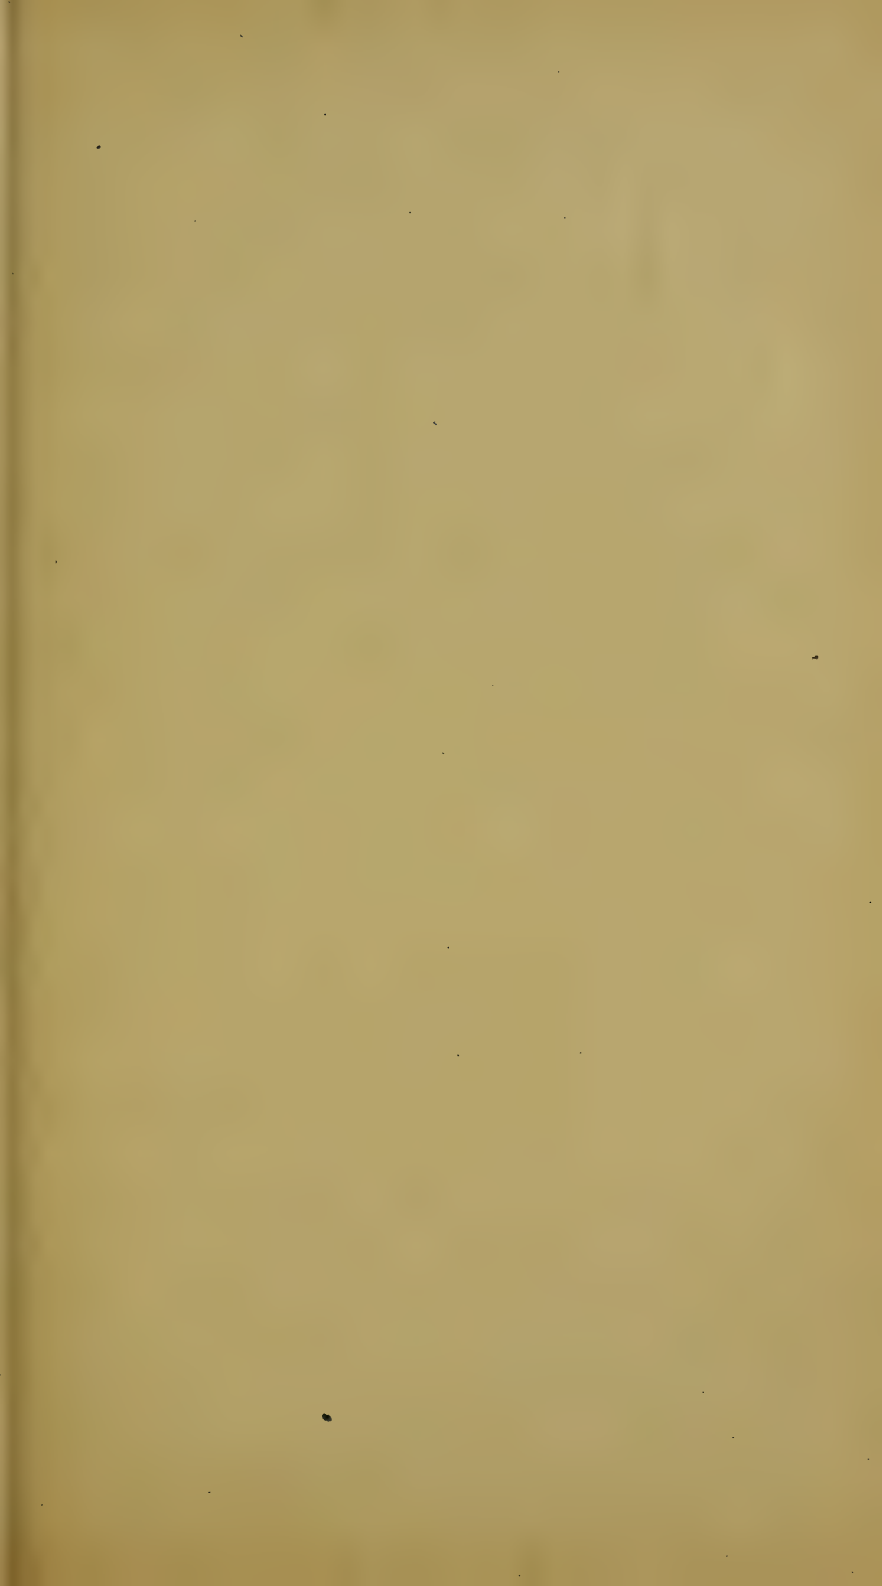

Miss M. J. REVERE 9, Newbury Street.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS, between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE period has arrived when it becomes proper for the Managers of The Children's Hospital to issue their Ninth Annual Report to the patrons of that beneficent charity, and to the public generally.

After nine years of successful experience, the enterprise is no longer an experiment. It has commended itself to all those who have had any acquaintance with its objects and with the results of its labors, as one of those charities about which there can be no difference of opinion; nor can a doubt arise in the mind of the contributors to its funds as to the fact that their aid has been given to a good work. They have almost literally "taken little children in their arms, and blessed them." Beginning in a small way, and always restricted in its usefulness by its limited means, the Hospital has already received and treated more than nine hundred children; and the Managers find it one of their most distressing duties to be obliged to refuse admission to many sick and suffering children, for lack of both room and money. A larger building, and one specially adapted to the purposes of a hospital, is greatly needed ; and it is to be hoped that, ere long, some warm hearts will be moved, and some kind hands extended, to effect that desirable object. In the mean time, contributions to meet the current expenses are called for, and, whether large or small, will be gratefully received by the Treasurer or either of the Managers.

It may be well to repeat, for the information of those who are not already acquainted with the Hospital or its objects, what has been so well said in a former report:—

“It is not designed merely to heal or alleviate physical diseases, although the best medical and surgical treatment, the most careful and tender nursing, and the most approved appliances are provided to that end: it also has a special regard to the moral benefit of its little patients, — supplying such pure and genial influences as are found in a cultivated Christian home.”

The Managers would again acknowledge their obligation to the Lady Superintendent (whose absence at this time, we hope, is only temporary), and her associates, whose management, in their several departments, has been all that could be desired ; and likewise to the Medical Staff, whose valuable professional services have been faithfully, skilfully, and gratuitously rendered.

Of the Ladies' Aid Association we can say no more than has been said in former reports, but we would repeat and indorse it all. During the past year they have not only continued their usual benefactions in clothing for the children, and supplies of linen and many useful articles for the house, but have maintained their "Convalescent Home" at Wellesley, where eighty-one children from the Hospital have been received this year, and their health greatly improved during their temporary stay of a week or two each, in the warm weather.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee,

ISAAC THACHER,

Chairman.

APPEAL OF THE MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers feel it incumbent on them, in an especial manner, to call the attention of the community to the facts contained in the Annual Report of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL for 1877. They wish to assure the friends of children that this valuable auxiliary to the Charitable Institutions of our city is actively and successfully doing its work of ministering to the sick and maimed little ones. Within the few years of its existence, more than 900 children have received the care of the Institution; and the number treated during the past twelve months is larger than in any previous year.

Under these circumstances, the Managers feel it necessary to make an urgent appeal to all the friends of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, and to the friends of children everywhere, for such increase of our means as shall make the Institution more fully a success. It is now actually in need of money for its current expenses and to secure its successful continuance in the future. The Managers earnestly solicit donations, to be paid either by annual subscriptions or in single sums, for the benefit of an Institution which must commend itself so warmly to the sympathies of a Christian community.

The Managers will gratefully receive any sum, whether large or small, which may be sent them in aid of the Hospital.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies. The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad, than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An association was organized at once by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced. The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates, not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association:—

President.

MRS. R. C. WINTHROP 90, Marlboro' Street.

Vice-President.

MRS. WM. W. TUCKER 98, Beacon Street.

Treasurer.

MISS C. A. BREWER 29, Beacon Street.

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week, except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

R E P O R T
OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IT is now nearly ten years since the attention of the community was called to the apparent need of a hospital for children in the city of Boston. It was evident to the medical men interested in the plan that the charitable institutions of the city failed to supply the means of treating children in a manner to conduce to their greatest good. They could not fail to recognize the fact that children were practically out of place where the primary object of a hospital was the care of adults, and that more satisfactory results might be attained in an institution where physicians, nurses, and the entire fittings of the hospital were exclusively devoted to children. They believed, also, that much good would accrue to the medical profession if patients of this class could be so grouped together that the diseases and injuries to which they are peculiarly liable could be carefully studied.

With these ends in view, the physicians laid their plans before a few gentlemen of this city, and urged their adoption. In February, 1869, the Act of Incorporation was passed by the Legislature, and in July following, the Hospital was opened for the reception of patients. Since that time, 1,058 children, disabled by sickness or injury, have received the benefits of the Institution. The Managers feel it a gratifying result of their labors, that a very large proportion of these patients have been restored to health or materially benefited, that many lives have been saved, and that the parents of children treated have been spared the anxiety and expense necessarily attending sickness in their humble homes.

The past year has not fallen behind preceding ones in the amount of work accomplished in the Hospital and Convalescent Home. In that time, 149 patients have been admitted and treated; the results of such care is shown in the report of the Medical Staff.

The fact has been brought more clearly than ever to the minds of the Managers and the Professional Staff, during the year just closed, that the building occupied by them is insufficient to meet the actual wants of the Hospital. While satisfying every requisite for a dwelling for a limited number of inhabitants, it is too small for the number of patients who seek our aid, and supplies inadequate means for proper sanitary care, and for easy and economical administration. The Managers do not, however, feel justified, in the present condition of their finances, in incurring new or increased expenses. It should be distinctly understood that they have no intention at any time of erecting any elaborate or unnecessarily costly building, but they earnestly desire, at some not far distant day, to accommodate the Hospital in a more spacious and more convenient building of its own.

The Convalescent Home at Wellesley has once more proved itself a valuable adjunct to the Hospital proper. As in former years, the Managers take pleasure in acknowledging the generous assistance of the Ladies' Aid Association, who have not only met every expense connected with the Home, but have materially relieved the treasury of the Hospital by supplying many needed articles of clothing, linen, &c. The Home was opened May 8, and was kept open until October 31, in which time eighty-five patients were sent to it from the Hospital, for longer or shorter periods.

The Managers are once more called to mourn the loss of one of their number. The death of Mr. Nathaniel H. Emmons removes from us one of the most earnest and devoted friends of the Hospital, one of the legal corporators, and one to whom the Board were indebted for a hearty interest, and for ever ready and judicious advice.

The Managers again acknowledge their indebtedness to the members of the Medical Staff, who have faithfully and skilfully cared for the patients; and to Sister Frances and the ladies associated with her, for their devoted interest and untiring services.

In conclusion, the Board of Managers desire to assure the Corporation, and all who have the interest of children at heart, that the Hospital has fully met the hopes which were entertained of it. The good it has accomplished is not to be measured alone by the immediate and more apparent relief which it has afforded, but by the increased vigor it has given to children of low vitality, which we believe will make them stronger and better men and women. With this exposition of the work which has been accomplished, and the hopes which the Managers entertain for the future, they ask the continued sympathy and assistance of the benevolent community.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

FRANCIS H. BROWN,

Chairman.

DECEMBER 28, 1878

BOSTON, Dec. 28, 1878. I have examined the above account for 1878,

APPEAL OF THE MANAGERS.

The Board of Managers feel it incumbent on them, in an especial manner, to call the attention of the community to the facts contained in the Annual Report of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL for 1878. They wish to assure the friends of children that this valuable auxiliary to the Charitable Institutions of our city is actively and successfully doing its work of ministering to the sick and maimed little ones. Within the few years of its existence, more than 1000 children have received the care of the Institution; and the number treated during the past twelve months is larger than in any previous year.

Under these circumstances, the Managers feel it necessary to make an urgent appeal to all the friends of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL, and to the friends of children everywhere, for such increase of our means as shall make the Institution more fully a success. It is now actually in need of money for its current expenses and to secure its successful continuance in the future. The Managers earnestly solicit donations, to be paid either by annual subscriptions or in single sums, for the benefit of an Institution which must commend itself so warmly to the sympathies of a Christian community.

The Managers will gratefully receive any sum, whether large or small, which may be sent them in aid of the Hospital.

BOSTON, January 1, 1879.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies.

The suggestion met with a ready and cordial response. No sooner was it whispered abroad, than a number of ladies met together, and agreed to carry it into effect without delay. An Association was organized at once by the choice of officers and the adoption of a simple constitution. Subscriptions were freely offered, and the work of purchasing and preparing the linen and the wardrobe which would be required to furnish the Hospital zealously commenced.

The efficiency and success with which the objects of the Association have been accomplished have been noticed in the preceding Reports.

Although not connected with the management of the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association has an important part to perform in promoting its usefulness, and contributes in a great measure to the comfort and happiness of its inmates, not only by supplying articles of furniture and clothing, but by the friendly visits of its members, and their affectionate personal interest in the children.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

PATIENTS between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Managers of The Children's Hospital, in this eleventh annual report, present to the public the result of its work during the past year, and their suggestions as to its needs and requirements for the future.

The Hospital, with the invaluable and indispensable help of its sister organization, the Ladies' Aid Association, of the same age, and to promote the same charity, has extended its healing and protecting branches over a wider extent, and taken deeper root in the hearts and affections of the people.

To recount what has been attempted and accomplished during the year would require an analysis of each case under treatment from its entry to its discharge, which even with one patient would fill more space than is allotted for this report; suffice it to say that the best possible shelter, care, and medical treatment have been freely given, fevered brows relieved, crooked limbs straightened, death and decay removed from living frames, fresh life infused into weak and emaciated bodies, and dying pillows soothed; all by tender and loving hands and hearts, in imitation of the

Master's example, and with the full experience and realization of his promise, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Owing to the continued absence of Sister Theresa, it has been, for the greater part of the year, under the charge of Sister Frances, to whose faithful and constant application, and cheerful and happy spirit, the Managers take great pleasure in bearing testimony, and to whom they desire to extend their heartfelt thanks for the successful working of the Institution while under her charge.

In October, Sister Theresa returned and resumed her position as Lady Superintendent; bringing to her post of duty renewed health and strength, and fresh courage and enthusiasm for her life work.

The medical report and tabulated statement annexed to it will accurately inform the inquirer of the number and nature of the cases treated at the Hospital, but more than a superficial reading and reflection is necessary to properly appreciate the extent of the work, and its success and worth, as almost each unit of every figure there enumerated indicates a life-struggle of a little human being.

In the gross, 178 cases have been treated: eighty-five discharged well, forty-eight relieved, and thirteen have died. All have been made comfortable; for even those who were too far gone to rally, and beyond the reach of human aid to cure, have experienced great relief in being taken from hard and insufficient beds in dark and dismal homes, where they have had no proper nourishment or care, and brought to the Hospital to receive gentle nursing, the best treatment, and good air, to have their last moments comforted, and to die with God's sunlight, as his last earthly blessing.

Since the opening of the Hospital, there have been under its care and charge 1,213 cases, a result which clearly proves its usefulness, and which warrants the Managers in asserting the strong claim of this Institution to a large share of the yearly donations and testamentary gifts of the generous-hearted and benevolent. From both of these sources the Hospital must draw for its future well-being and existence.

Those who take so much satisfaction in sending their yearly contributions should also bear in mind, that the work does not cease with this generation; and that it can be greatly aided and fostered in the future, by bequeathing to the Corporation amounts of money or estate, to be always held in trust, each such sum being a separate fund bearing the donor's name, and the income from which, for ever used by the Managers and their successors, as his agents, and in his name and stead from year to year, in caring for the sick and suffering children; and thus, as it were, securing for the giver a life through all time.

As is well known, the Hospital began its work in a small dwelling-house in Rutland Street, which it soon outgrew, and the present house was procured and has been used for several years for that purpose.

While it was in its infancy, and before it had become a well-known and recognized instrument for good, and while its inmates were comparatively few, the present building, although in many ways ill adapted for the purpose, was considered for the time being as the best possible under all circumstances. But now that the house is filled to overflowing, and cases demanding treatment have to be turned away, the defects of an ordinary dwelling-house, intended for only one family, but used for a hospital for many persons, show themselves, and have become so patent as to embolden the Managers to make an effort for relief in this respect.

A hospital building requires large accommodations, plenty of room, and different apartments, besides the regular wards, for the examination of new patients, for surgical operations, and for isolation of peculiar diseases. Above all, good ventilation and air are indispensable.

The Managers now fully realize the fact that the Hospital is growing sadly in need of these and of other modern improvements in a building for the treatment of patients which can only be secured by erecting a structure especially for the purpose, in a central location; and that this step cannot safely be delayed longer.

They therefore call attention to the annexed Appeal for this object, thinking that this is the proper time to set about building a Children's Hospital which shall be one of the landmarks of Boston; and that, at the beginning of a new period, when, after a long-continued depression in the business world, the horizon brightens with the dawning prosperity, when there is once again employment and profit for every idle being and thing, and when, on every side, men's hearts are gladdened with the prospect of the coming good, it would be most becoming, and a fitting mark of gratitude to the Giver of life to erect to his greatness and goodness such a monument; something which should be only the outside form of that invisible structure which would be, from year to year, nourished and increased within its walls, — this the body, while the other is the spirit; this one for all time, that one for eternity.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Board of Managers, by their Committee.

C. H. FISKE,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies.

The Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association, thinking that it may interest their subscribers to have a more detailed account of the working of the Association than that included in the Annual Report of the Managers of the Hospital, desire to make the following short statement.

From the time the Hospital was opened, the ladies of the Association have provided all the clothing for the children, all the towels and bed and table linen used in the Hospital, amounting in the whole to more than ten thousand articles, which they have cut out and had made. The boots, shoes, hats, and hoods for the children are also provided by the ladies of the Association. They supply also all bandages, and many extra surgical appliances. They give the children a Christmas tree, and in the course of the year send frequently to drive such of the children as are well enough. Five years ago they hired a house at Wellesley, and fitted it up as a Convalescent Home connected with the Hospital. They have since been able to buy a house in the same town, and established the Home on a permanent basis. Last spring, through the generosity of friends, they were able to make some additions to the house, at the cost of over five hundred dollars, which renders it more suitable for its purpose. During the last summer ninety-four children have been sent there.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association : —

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Managers of The Children's Hospital make this their twelfth annual report.

The management of the Hospital during the last year has been the same in all its working details as shown in previous reports. The number of resident or in-patients treated during the year, as shown by the report of the medical and surgical staff submitted herewith, has been 199. The same report gives a detailed statement of cases treated, with attendant results. The work of the staff, increased at the beginning of the year by the addition of an Assistant Physician, Assistant Surgeon, and Pathologist, has been most thorough and efficient in all departments, and the management desires to express its entire satisfaction with the same, and its appreciation of its results. The immediate care of the building and wards, with the nursing and care of patients, has been, as heretofore, under the supervision of the Sisters of St. Margaret.

The Convalescent Home at Wellesley, an important adjunct of the Hospital, has been open during the summer from May 17 to October 17, for the reception of patients so far convalescent as to admit of removal to the country, with a view to more rapid recovery. The number of patients received here has been 100.

The department for out-patients demands more extended notice. The necessity of this department as a coördinate branch of the hospital service has become more apparent with every year of its existence. Its growth has in consequence been rapid, and is now restricted only by the limits of the present hospital building. Its purpose is the reception and treatment of cases which for any reason cannot be admitted to the Hospital, or such as do not require permanent residence for purposes of effective treatment. Since the 28th of December last, 251 out-patients have been received and treated. For this purpose, physicians are in attendance at the Hospital, for the treatment of medical cases, on Tuesday and Friday afternoons of every week; for surgical cases on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons. This department has suffered severely, as have all the departments of the Hospital, from the want of proper and necessary accommodations. With increased facilities its work will be largely extended.

With the general management of these several departments, the Managers of the Hospital, to whom those in immediate charge are responsible, are well satisfied.

The Ladies' Aid Association has been of valuable assistance, as heretofore, in the providing and distributing of articles necessary for the comfort and care of patients, and in the practical interest it has taken in the enlargement and improvement of the Convalescent Home.

At the opening of the current year the Managers became convinced of the necessity of other and better accommodations than those heretofore existing for the treatment and care of patients, and the more successful working of the hospital service. Contracted quarters, involving the most serious inconvenience, and thwarting the best efforts of the management, together with the lack of ventilation and the impossibility of supplying it, as the Hospital is now placed, made necessary a strong effort to cure these defects, to put the Hospital upon a stronger and more extended foundation, and, by increasing its powers of usefulness, to enable it more fully to accomplish the purposes of its incorporation. To this necessary step the management was further impelled by urgent and continued pressure from without, and the duty of providing so far as is in its power for the constant applications for admission to the Hospital by the public in whose behalf it is conducted.

At a meeting held in January last, a committee was appointed to have in charge the matter of subscriptions to a new hospital building. In this the committee has met with fully the hoped-for success. The public has subscribed for the purpose the sum of $95,000, leaving $5,000 of the sum deemed necessary by the management to be raised by future subscription. In this, also, the management has had, from the first, the active co-operation of the Ladies' Aid Association. Land has been bought in what is believed to be a central position, and work on the building will be begun as soon as the season will allow. Every effort has been made by the Building Committee, who have the matter in charge, to secure for the public such hospital accommodations as shall fully meet its requirements. They have had the assistance of the best expert testimony in all matters of hospital detail, and have fully advised themselves of the practical working of the same so far as they are shown in the management of the best hospitals in this and other cities. With its completion a thorough system of hospital management for children will be tested, and, it is believed, perfected, under conditions not heretofore existing, and such as, in the opinion of the Managers, will insure a yet larger measure of success in the several branches of medical and surgical treatment, the nursing and care of patients, and all the varied details of hospital service.

With the beginning of every year, new and more extended opportunities for hospital work open before us, and it is the purpose of the management to push to the earliest possible completion the efforts thus begun, and to place the Hospital upon a secure and lasting basis of usefulness and success.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

HENRY G. PICKERING,

Chairman

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies.

The Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association, thinking that it may interest their subscribers to have a more detailed account of the working of the Association than that included in the Annual Report of the Managers of the Hospital, desire to make the following short statement.

From the time the Hospital was opened, the ladies of the Association have provided all the clothing for the children, all the towels and bed and table linen used in the Hospital, amounting in the whole to between ten and eleven thousand articles, which they have cut out and had made. The boots, shoes, hats, and hoods for the children are also provided by the ladies of the Association. They supply also all bandages, and many extra surgical appliances. They give the children a Christmas tree, and in the course of the year send such of the children as are well enough out to drive. Six years ago they hired a house at Wellesley, and fitted it up as a Convalescent Home connected with the Hospital. They have since been able to buy a house in the same town, and established the Home on a permanent basis. During the last summer one hundred children have been sent there.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IT is now nearly thirteen years since the organization of The Children's Hospital in February, 1869, and the Managers herewith beg to present their thirteenth report to the friends of the institution and the public.

During the past year the Hospital has continued its career of charity and usefulness with uninterrupted success; and we feel confident in assuring those interested, not only that we have met a real want in the community, but that we have obtained considerable success in meeting that want, and we hope in the immediate future to largely increase our facilities and power to help and relieve the sickness and distress among the poor and unfortunate.

As the division of labor makes it more effective, by applying it to one restricted field, where it reaches its highest perfection in constantly repeating the same task; so we claim, that our Hospital gains in effectiveness and usefulness by devoting itself to the needs of children alone; at the same time relieving the institutions for adults, and adding greatly to the means of relief for the children themselves. If any fathers or mothers of tender children have still any doubt about our need as a community for a special hospital for the little ones, we would beg them to visit us, and compare with their own eyes the comfort, good nursing, mechanical appliances, the cheerful atmosphere, and companionship among the children to be found there, with the more gloomy and forbidding appearance of the ward of a general hospital. We are sure that such an inspection would convince any one that our Hospital offers very superior facilities for cure or improvement to the sick child.

By our last annual report $95,000 had been raised for the erection of a new and permanent hospital especially adapted to our own requirements. At the present time that fund has been increased by additional subscriptions to $100,000, the amount originally estimated to cover the cost of such a building.

In September of last year a very desirable lot of land on Huntington Avenue, measuring over 31,000 feet, was purchased by the Building Committee for the sum of $30,000, and efforts were at once made to secure the best plans for the new hospital that experience and skill could suggest. After long debate and deliberation between the Building Committee, the Medical Staff, and the Architects, Messrs. N. J. Bradlee, W. T. Winslow, and G. H. Wetherell, a plan was adopted, which is now embodied in a nearly completed structure, and which we believe will give satisfaction to all concerned, unless it be in one particular, — the cost.

We find that modern improvements are costly, and although every effort was made to keep the estimates down to the lowest point, we shall exceed the $100,000 before the building is finished and paid for. This fact was realized before we made our contracts; but the Board after the most careful deliberation decided that the present plans, all things considered, were the best, and that the additional cost was well incurred to secure such a building as we now have.

On June 13 the corner-stone was laid in the presence of the Trustees and a few friends of the institution with simple but appropriate ceremonies, Dr. Robbins making a short address. The stone, with the date 1881, may be seen on the south-east corner. A metal box containing various reports and papers is built into it, where we hope it will remain for many long years with its safely stored facts about the institution of our day. The building can now be seen by all, plain, but graceful and substantial, and we think suitable in every way for its purpose, as well as a creditable monument in honor of the philanthropy and benevolence of the citizens of Boston. We shall now have the best appliances to carry on our work, — wards of ample dimensions, with the most approved means for ventilation, sunlight, warmth, and cheerfulness; private wards for paying patients; proper offices and quarters for the Medical Staff and Nurses; and, in short, every desirable means for the care of sick children. We expect the building will be completed and ready for patients in 1882.

We cannot refrain from referring to the name of the Hon. E. R. Mudge. In his death the Hospital has lost a generous friend, who for five years was one of its active managers. The loss of old friends by death makes us especially desirous of securing new ones among the rising generation, and so maintaining the permanence and durability of our good undertaking.

We desire to acknowledge the receipt of various sums of money and articles received both at the Hospital and the Convalescent Home during the past year. These annual gifts are absolutely essential to the continued life and usefulness of the Hospital, and while we sincerely thank the donors, we hope that they will be so well satisfied with the good they have done as to remember us the coming year, and the increased work we are about to undertake.

We take great pleasure in thanking the physicians and surgeons for their constant and faithful services to the patients and to the interests of the Hospital, and hope that the experience gained by them in children's diseases (originally considered to be one of the objects of our institution), will in some degree compensate them for their generous and gratuitous labors.

Sister Theresa of the order of St. Margaret still continues in the immediate charge of the house and care of patients; and to her also and her faithful associates we desire to express our warmest thanks for their great skill and unwearied zeal in their self-imposed labor of love.

It may not be known to all that this Hospital has a most efficient auxiliary in the Ladies' Aid Association, whose labors have continued the past year with energy and success. To them we are entirely indebted for the care and support of the Convalescent Home, as well as for valuable assistance at the Hospital in services, money, and effects. We sincerely thank them and testify to the good they have done.

It has been suggested that the Managers should authorize the naming of beds at the Hospital in memory of little children who have fallen by the wayside, and whose names their parents or friends may desire to perpetuate in this way, as has been done in other hospitals. This will probably soon be arranged so that we may avail ourselves of this form of charity, and extend the usefulness of the Hospital.

The report of the Medical Staff shows that an increased number of patients have been received the past year, and no doubt many more could have been cared for to their great benefit or alleviation, if the resources of the Hospital had been larger. Our new building will go far to meet these claims another year, and we hope we shall then enter on a career of increased usefulness.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Managers, by one of their Committee.

JOHN C. PHILLIPS.

A heliotype view of the Hospital, as it will appear when completed, is inserted opposite the titlepage. The administrative building in the centre and the southern wing have already been erected.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies.

The Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association, thinking that it may interest their subscribers to have a more detailed account of the working of the Association than that included in the Annual Report of the Managers of the Hospital, desire to make the following short statement.

From the time the Hospital was opened, the ladies of the Association have provided all the clothing for the children, all the towels and bed and table linen used in the Hospital, amounting in the whole to between eleven and twelve thousand articles, which they have cut out and had made. The boots, shoes, hats, and hoods for the children are also provided by the ladies of the Association. They supply also all bandages, and many extra surgical appliances. They give the children a Christmas tree, and in the course of the year send such of the children as are well enough out to drive. Seven years ago they hired a house at Wellesley, and fitted it up as a Convalescent Home connected with the Hospital. They have since been able to buy a house in the same town, and established the Home on a permanent basis. During the last summer one hundred and one children were treated there.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

The following is a list of the officers of the Association :—

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IN presenting the fourteenth annual report of The Children's Hospital, the Managers once more assure their friends that the Institution has satisfactorily continued its good work in the care of sick and injured children; that it is daily increasing in favor with the classes of the community for which it is intended, and contributes substantially to their comfort.

The report of the Medical Staff shows that one hundred and eighty-five patients have been treated within the Hospital during the year. Of this little company of children one hundred and forty-five have been sent out either cured or greatly relieved. We hope that with more ample space and better means for work we may extend our assistance to larger numbers in the future. In addition to those cared for in the house, four hundred and twenty-one children have been treated in the out-patient department. This branch of the Hospital has done good service to a large class of poor children not requiring admission to the wards. One hundred children were received at the Convalescent Home at Wellesley, for longer or shorter times in the summer months. During the past year the Medical Staff has been increased by the addition of one Assistant Physician; and the Managers have, at the suggestion of the Staff, appointed resident and non-resident house officers.

Within a few months the Managers have lost by death two of their valued associates. Rev. Chandler Robbins, D.D., was one of the earliest friends of the Hospital. By his timely advice and wise counsels he drew into sympathy with the undertaking interested and influential friends; and all the powers of his mind, with his hand and heart, were ever at the disposal of the Hospital. Rev. J. M. Manning, D.D., another good friend of the Hospital, and for two years an interested worker with us, has also passed away; and the Board desire to record their grateful appreciation of his services.

The Managers again wish to acknowledge their indebtedness to the members of the Medical Staff, to Sister Theresa and her associates, and to the Ladies' Aid Association. They wish particularly at this time to recognize the assistance, rendered by the Association named, in collecting funds for the erection of the new Hospital, and in furnishing it with ample stores of linen and other household supplies. The Managers feel and wish to express their especial obligation to all who have aided them in the building and equipping of their new Hospital; to two ladies who have furnished completely the boys' and girls' wards, respectively; to those who have done a similar service for the Managers' and reception rooms, for the private wards, and for other parts of the building; also to the Young Men's Christian Union, to the Flower Missions, and to many friends who, by generous gifts, by their visits, and by kind words, have helped in the good work.

The year just closed marks an important era in the history of the Hospital. On the 20th of the present month the Board of Managers threw open for the inspection of the public the new building which they had caused to be erected on Huntington Avenue. On the day following Christmas it was dedicated, by appropriate religious exercises, to the service of God and the suffering children; and the same day a little child and former patient voluntarily presented himself for admission, being the first received in the new building. He was followed an hour later by eighteen patients, removed from the old to the new building. In this manner were carried out the plans formed by the Managers in the earliest days of the Hospital, elaborated after earnest thought and careful deliberation by officers of the Institution and their friends, and completed at this day, with the hope that the Divine blessing will rest upon the Institution in the future years.

It is a satisfaction to the Managers to know that the building just finished is thoroughly built and of good material; that it is well adapted to the care of sick children; and that it represents, as far as possible, the most advanced ideas in hospital construction. The Board can assure the public that no money has been wasted, either in erecting the edifice or in furniture; and that only so much has been expended in the way of ornament as to make the building a creditable one to the city. As it stands to-day, the Hospital can accommodate sixty patients; when the plans originally made shall have been carried out, its capacity will be still further increased to one hundred beds.

It is proper to record the names of those who have been practically engaged, under the direction of the Building Committee, in the construction of the Hospital. The architects were Messrs. Walter T. Winslow and George H. Wetherell, assisted by Mr. Nathaniel J. Bradlee as consulting architect; the masons were J. W. Coburn & Co.; carpenters, Morton & Chesley; plumbers, Tucker & Titus; painter, J. B. Hand; the furniture and curtains were supplied by Bancroft and Dyer; bedsteads, by the Tucker Manufacturing Company; mattresses and pillows, by McCrillis & Kendall; gas fixtures, by Shreve, Crump, & Low; boiler, steam, and ventilating apparatus, by F. Tudor & Co.; china and crockery, by Jones, McDuffee, and Stratton; kitchen and ward furnishing goods, by Smith & Byram; rugs and carpets, by John H. Pray, Sons, & Co.; electric bells and speaking tubes, by S. W. Fuller; stretchers, bed-rests, &c., by A. Hathaway. Altogether, the duty of building and furnishing has been well and thoroughly done; and the Managers are indebted to all engaged in the work of securing a thoroughly built and well-equipped hospital.

The Managers desire to call the attention of the public to some points which are of interest. The service will be conducted in the future substantially as in previous years: children between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute, non-contagious diseases and injuries, will be received, if residents within the city, and at reasonable rates of board if living without its limits. In addition, a certain portion of the building has been devoted to the accommodation of private patients. By this arrangement the Managers are enabled to receive and to give good accommodations to children, accompanied, if necessary, by their mothers or private nurses. The rooms devoted to this purpose will thus serve for patients who may be from a distance, or those taken ill or injured while in the city, who wish to place themselves under the care of any member of the Hospital Staff, and to secure, at the same time, the most constant and skilful nursing. Reasonable rates of board will be charged.

The Managers again call on their friends for continued gifts to carry on the Hospital. The new building, which will give added means for relieving the distresses of sick children, calls for additional duties on the part of friends to supply ample funds for its maintenance. The cost of the building, with the furniture, will amount to about $125,000; of this amount $115,000 is assured, leaving an indebtedness on our part of $10,000. The public needs no further assurance that our work is a good one. The friends of little children must see to it that the work shall not languish for the need of ample support.

Respectfully submitted, for the Managers, by their Committee.

FRANCIS H. BROWN,

Chairman.

BOSTON, December 28, 1882.

A heliotype view of the Hospital, as it will appear when completed, is inserted opposite the titlepage. The administrative building in the centre and the southern wing have already been erected.

SERVICES AT THE DEDICATION
THE NEW HOSPITAL BUILDING.

IN accordance with a vote of the Managers, a special meeting of the Board was held at the Hospital on Huntington Avenue on the 26th of December, 1882, at half-past ten o'clock. The Vice-President, Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, occupied the chair. Members of the Medical Staff and of the Ladies' Aid Association, with a few friends of the Hospital, joined the Managers in the service of dedication.

The service was opened by Mr. Winthrop in the following words : —

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, — In the absence of Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, the President and foremost benefactor of this Institution, whose illness is so deeply lamented by us all, it has become my privilege and my duty to preside over the proceedings of this occasion. Those proceedings must necessarily be brief, and I shall detain you with but few introductory words.

Thirteen years have now elapsed since, at the earnest appeal of our excellent friend, the late Dr. Chandler Robbins, whose portrait we have placed, with that of Mr. Thayer, in our Managers' room, this Children's Hospital was originally organized and incorporated.

As one of its Managers from the beginning, and for some years past its Vice-President, I recall at this hour not a few of those who have been associated with us in our work, and who would have rejoiced not less than we do in the grand consummation which we are permitted to witness. I cannot fail to mention the late Albert Fearing, the largest contributor to our permanent fund, George H. Kuhn and Nathaniel H. Emmons, Chief Justice Bigelow, the Hon. E. R. Mudge, and the Rev. Dr. Manning. Their names must not be lost to our history, or to our own grateful remembrance.

Meantime there are those around me to whom our hearty acknowledgments are due for the success which has attended this Institution during its whole existence, and which has been crowned at last by the erection of this spacious and commodious edifice. I should be conscious of a great omission if I did not name particularly Dr. Francis H. Brown, our untiring Secretary, and Mr. Charles Faulkner, of the Building Committee, with Mr. Isaac Thacher and Mr. John C. Phillips, who have devoted so much time and thought and personal supervision to the work. Nor can I forget our Treasurer, Mr. Wetherell; and I trust that no one else will forget his readiness to receive and acknowledge any contributions to our cause.

But I should be guilty of a still less pardonable omission, were I not to refer to the invaluable assistance which has been rendered to us, from first to last, by the Ladies' Aid Association, so many of whom we are glad to see present on this occasion, and by other ladies who have generously co-operated with them, both in supplying the various wants of the Hospital heretofore, and in providing the furniture of so many of these wards and apartments now. We cannot be too grateful for all that they have done.

We are not assembled, however, to recognize any merely human agencies in the work which has at length been accomplished. Everything of that sort may well be left to our annual reports, or to other appropriate opportunities. We are here for higher acknowledgments. The Managers have been unwilling that this new and noble building should be taken into possession, and opened for the uses for which it has been designed, until our thanks have been reverently offered to the Giver of all Good, who has so prospered our efforts in the past, and until His blessing has been fervently invoked for the future.

The little cots around us will soon be occupied by the suffering children, who are to be brought here an hour or two hence, under the charge of the devoted Sister Theresa, and her associates of St. Margaret's, superintended by our faithful volunteer Medical Staff. We will not run the risk of disturbing or delaying their removal from the narrow quarters in which they have thus far been cared for and nursed, by any protracted services of our own. They will bring their own blessings with them; blessings for us as well as for themselves.

For, indeed, my friends, if there be any one variety or quality of charity or mercy which fulfils, beyond all other varieties, that exquisite idea of Shakspeare, as "twice-blessed, — blessing him that gives and him that takes," — it can be no other than such a provision as this for the sick, suffering, helpless little children of the poor, for whom our Hospital has been erected, and to whom it is now to be consecrated. Let us hope that the same liberality and beneficence which have enabled us to build it will afford ample means for sustaining it from year to year, and that an Institution which has already ministered to the relief of hardly less than two thousand poor, sick, suffering little ones, may rely confidently on the generous support and sympathy of our community in all time to come.

But we shall count in vain on the help of man without the blessing of God. We all remember where it is written, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it." Let me, then, no longer delay to call upon the Rev. Dr. Blagden to read for us from the Holy Scriptures, after which the Rev. Dr. Lothrop will offer prayer and praise.

The following selections from the Scriptures were then read by Dr. Blagden:—

O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. — Ps. viii. 1, 2.

And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them. — Mark x. 13-16.

Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the king shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. — Matt. xxv. 37-40.

The Rev. S. K. Lothrop, D.D., offered the dedicatory prayer in the following words:—

ALMIGHTY GOD, our Heavenly Father! Our strength is in dependence upon thy power. Without thee we are nothing and can do nothing. It is our duty, glory, privilege, to acknowledge thee in all our ways, and to ask thy blessing upon all our acts; and we would now, O God, devoutly and reverently ask thy blessing upon the institution whose officers and representatives are here gathered before thee, in the spirit of Christian faith, to dedicate and set apart this building to the great purpose of Christian philanthropy and benevolence for which it has been reared.

We thank thee, O our Father, for the faith, the love, the wisdom, energy, and patient perseverance, which thy servants have shown in originating and conducting to its present usefulness this Children's Hospital; and we bear in remembrance before thee at this hour all the living, present and absent, and all the dead, whose names are dear to us, and whose images rise up to our grateful hearts, who have contributed largely of their time, influence, energy, and wealth to its success, till now it stands before thee strongly entrenched in public favor, on this convenient and appropriate spot, in this new, commodious, and well-appointed structure.

As thy favor has rested upon it from the beginning, may it continue to overshadow and bless it in all its further usefulness and needs. May thy spirit in all holy influences ever be within these walls, and may Christian love and tenderness and sympathy have here a perpetual place and power. Here may skill and care and science and kindness, and the wisest and most watchful nursing, do what they can, and all that they can, to check the progress of disease, to woo back health to those called in the morning of life to endure sickness and suffering. Here for long years may many, many children be built up in health and strength, and go forth from these walls with a renewed vigor of body, and a holy vigor of mind and heart, quickened by the influences surrounding them here to act well their part in lives of fidelity, usefulness, and honor in the world.

Continue, we beseech thee, O God, to give wisdom, energy, and perseverance to the officers and representatives of this institution, and to all who shall come after them, so that for long generations it shall endure, its means ever increasing to meet its enlarged and enlarging opportunities, and so become more and more a comfort and a benediction to those who may need it, and an honor to our city. Bless our city, O God, and all its institutions of Christian philanthropy and benevolence, and grant that through them the progress of evil and sin may be stayed, and we become more a city set on a hill, that cannot be hid. Bless all the cities, nations, governments of the earth ; bless this great race of humanity in its mighty struggle and conflict, and hasten the time, we entreat thee, when the glorious Gospel of the Son of God shall bring all the institutions, customs, habits, practices of mankind, all human thought and action, into harmony with its spirit, its precepts, and its truths ; and Thy Kingdom come, and Thy Will be done on earth as it is in heaven ; which we ask, to the glory of thy holy name, in Christ Jesus our Lord, as whose disciples we ascribe unto thee everlasting praises. Amen.

The Rev. Dr. Blagden pronounced the Benediction.

Mr. Winthrop then said, "Nothing remains for me, my friends, but to declare, in behalf of the Managers, as I do, that this building is now open for the children."

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THIS Association was established at the suggestion of the Managers, who were especially desirous of securing for the Hospital the immediate interest and valuable assistance of ladies.

The Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association, thinking that it may interest their subscribers to have a more detailed account of the working of the Association than that included in the Annual Report of the Managers of the Hospital, desire to make the following short statement.

From the time the Hospital was opened, the ladies of the Association have provided all the clothing for the children, all the towels and bed and table linen used in the Hospital, amounting in the whole to between thirteen and fourteen thousand articles, which they have cut out and had made. The boots, shoes, hats, and hoods for the children are also provided by the ladies of the Association. They supply also all bandages, and many extra surgical appliances. They give the children a Christmas tree, and in the course of the year send such of the children as are well enough out to drive. Eight years ago they hired a house at Wellesley, and fitted it up as a Convalescent Home connected with the Hospital. They have since bought a house in the same town, and established the Home on a permanent basis. During the last summer one hundred children were treated there.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The annual meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.
The following is a list of the officers of the Association:—

REGULATIONS CONCERNING PATIENTS.

PATIENTS between the ages of two and twelve, suffering from acute diseases, medical or surgical, are received at the Hospital. No patient is admitted whose case is considered chronic or incurable, unless there be urgent symptoms which, in the opinion of the medical staff, are capable of being relieved; nor will any one be admitted having an infectious or contagious disease.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on each day of the week, except Sunday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IN this their fifteenth annual report, the Managers of The Children's Hospital present the record of its first year in the new building on Huntington Avenue.

It has been in many respects an experimental year. In the management and care of the building itself, in the testing and working of the system for heating and ventilating, and especially in providing for the greatly increased number of patients, nurses, and servants, the economy of the Hospital has required a much larger amount of labor and of money than in any previous year. The Managers are well satisfied with the result, and feel assured that, in the trial of its enlarged capacity and of the new and greater requirements of the past year, the Hospital has been carried on with prudence and discretion in its expenditure. The actual total of the year's work, and the cost of accomplishing it, show that the usefulness and advantages of the Hospital have been much more than doubly increased over any previous year at less proportional expenditure, and it has been the constant effort of the Managers that the expenses should be only such as are reasonable and necessary.

The entire cost of the building, including furniture and equipment, has been about $125,000. It is now wholly paid for, and the managers wish to express in this report their earnest gratitude to the many contributors to the building fund.

The Hospital has now accommodations for sixty patients, which is double the number receivable in the house formerly occupied on Washington Street. Each of the two wards has twenty beds; there are five rooms for private patients, and three rooms designed for special cases or those which need the quiet of a separate apartment. Up to this time the private wards, for children when attended by parents or private nurses, have been almost unused; but it is believed that they are an important part of the Hospital accommodations, and that by notices put in the medical journals and sent to physicians in and near Boston, they might find a welcome use for cases requiring careful nursing and constant treatment. The charge for these rooms, including board and attendance, has been fixed at thirty dollars for the smaller, and forty dollars for the larger, per week. The wards are sunny and cheerful, and can always be well heated and ventilated; indeed, all the conditions for beneficial or successful treatment of the patients are more favorable than the institution has ever before enjoyed.

For convenience of reference, and for the purpose of showing the relative number of patients in each year and the annual receipts and expenses, a tabulated statement thereof is given at the end of this report.

The Managers desire, however, to present more in detail certain items which show the larger requirements of the new building both in labor and in money.

The year's total of "House Bills" in the reports of the treasurer embraces wages, food, gas, house-ware, and a few minor items. In the last report — December 1, 1881, to December 1, 1882 — this total was $6,767.87, or a monthly average of $564. In the present report it is $13,131.98. Excluding the month of December, 1882 (passed in the former building), the monthly average of the "House Bills" in the new building is $1,124. Therefore in this year the aggregate of the "House Bills" (as also the total cost of the maintenance of the Hospital) has been about double that of the previous year. The necessity of this will readily be seen from the following facts : —

In previous years there were eight paid employees in the Hospital. The yearly total of their wages was $1,769. In the present building there are eighteen regular employees, engaged at very reasonable rates, and three other persons employed about half the year. The total wages of all the employees for the year is $4,166.64. Of the above list two do not board in the Hospital.

The cost of the board of the greatly increased number of attendants and servants, as well as of patients, is a large element in the house-bill account. The daily average number boarded in previous years was ten adults and about eighteen children; during the past year it has been twenty-two adults and about thirty-seven children.

As to the manner and cost of heating the building, the Managers have obtained the opinion of experts, and are fully satisfied that the amount of coal consumed is not large in proportion to the area to be heated, and in order to secure good and constant ventilation and the desirable system of heating which avoids the use of steam radiators in the wards.

The general care of the building and of the children has continued to be under the superintendence of the Sisters of St. Margaret.

The average daily number of children and the exact cost per patient cannot now be ascertained, but it is believed to be approximately correct to say that in the former building the average of patients for each day was eighteen, and the annual expenses were, exclusive of rent, about $7,500, making the daily cost for each patient about $1.14. In the present building the average has been thirty-seven patients per day, and the year's expenses have been $16,501.28; making the daily cost for each patient about $1.22. This record has been compared with those of similar institutions in Massachusetts, and the comparison is very favorable and satisfactory.

The Managers believe that the foregoing details fully bear out what they have said, that while the labor and expenses attending the proper maintenance of the Hospital have been largely augmented, its usefulness and good work have more than proportionately increased.

The number of children received and treated in the wards during the year, as shown by the report of the Medical Staff, herewith submitted, is 280, and the total number since the establishment of the hospital is 2,034.

The out-patient department, for children who do not need immediate or continued residence, or for any reason cannot be placed in the Institution, demands particular notice in this report. It has become a very prominent and growing factor in the good work of the Hospital. This department, established in 1875, has steadily increased in usefulness and public favor, and the new building has supplied an urgent want and long-needed accommodations. The great gain of this part of the Institution is largely due to the increased facilities for treatment, and the fact that there is no other hospital in the city where these patients are or can be received to the same extent and with the same advantages. In 1880, the number of children treated in this department was 251; in 1881, 336; in 1882, 421; and the total of the past year is 1,488.

It has been found necessary to limit the admission of relatives of the resident patients to Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from eleven to twelve o'clock.

Early in the year a second donation was received for a memorial bed. Suitable tablets have been placed over the two cots in memory of the children whose names they bear. This form of gift is especially gratifying.

The Ladies' Aid Association has, as in previous years, given most welcome assistance in providing and distributing clothing, linen, and other articles essential to the proper care and comfort of the children. Its officers and managers have been unwearied in their devotion to the welfare of the Hospital. To their cordial co-operation, to their interest in the work of the Hospital, in the patients, and in the nurses, and to their substantial gifts, and services in obtaining other donations, the success of the Institution is largely due. They not only established and furnished the Convalescent Home at Wellesley, but have for eight years maintained it by their personal labors, and obtained the funds for its care and support. That Home was founded in 1875, with accommodations for twelve patients, and received, during its first season, thirty-nine children. In the past summer sixty-nine children were sent thither from the Hospital.

To the Sisters of St. Margaret, the members of the Medical Staff, and all friends of the Hospital who have sent gifts and contributed by their kindness to the comfort and happiness of the children, and especially to the officers and managers of the Ladies' Aid Association, the Managers of the Hospital most gratefully acknowledge their indebtedness.

On the seventh day of March, 1883, he who from the day of the incorporation of the Hospital had been its honored president, its most munificent patron and unfailing benefactor, quietly passed away. In most grateful remembrance of Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, and with a profound sense of their loss, the Managers of the Hospital have placed upon their records the following resolutions: — in the chair, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: —

Resolved, That in meeting for the first time since the lamented death of our President, Nathaniel Thayer, the Managers desire to enter upon their records an expression of their deep and grateful sense of his valuable services during the whole period which has elapsed since the original organization of our Hospital; that we cannot be unmindful that without his large and repeated gifts, and his careful and liberal management of our finances, this new building could hardly have been undertaken; and that his portrait on our walls will thus justly perpetuate the memory of our foremost benefactor as well as our first President.

Resolved, That we desire to acknowledge also, with sincere gratitude, the generous contribution from the children of Mr. Thayer, since his death, and, apart from his own bequest, of the full sum needed for the final payments on our new building — thus associating with the completion of the Hospital the family name most prominently connected with its inception and progress.

Resolved, That the secretary communicate a copy of these resolutions to the family of Mr. Thayer, and that they also be communicated to the corporation at their next meeting.

On the sixth day of February last, the death of Mr. Isaac Thacher brought another sad loss to the Hospital. In the words of the resolutions entered upon the records of the Board, "he had been from its beginning a zealous worker and bountiful benefactor, and was always ready with heart and mind to promote its welfare. The Managers feel a sense of personal loss in this sad event, as his cheerful presence and sound advice had endeared him to all."

The recent appeals of the Managers have been most liberally met, and the generous response is very gratefully acknowledged. But a large increase of the permanent fund of the Hospital is essential to its proper maintenance. It is especially desired to obtain a much greater number of small as well as large annual subscriptions. Every one knows that great results have often been attained by the aggregate of many small donations. The number of annual subscribers has been greatly diminished by deaths and other causes, and a large increase of this list is most earnestly desired. The Managers recall with deep gratitude the bounty of those to whom the Institution has owed its existence, its new building, and its constant support. To those friends and to the public they hopefully appeal for such ample assistance that the good work of The Children's Hospital may be continued and increased.

Before closing their report the Managers wish to say emphatically that The Children's Hospital is in no way a sectarian institution. Its Managers and active members would not be in sympathy with any sectarian influence or direction in its economy. They are of various denominations; but, apart from that, they recognize that in a public charitable hospital there is nothing denominational.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Managers by their Committee.

ROLAND C. LINCOLN,
Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THE Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association feel that it is due the subscribers who have been so generous to this charity, that the following statement of the work of the Association be given them.

During the last year the Association has supplied for The Children's Hospital, as it has done in the twelve previous years, all the towels, table and bed linen, clothing for the children, also boots, shoes, hats, and hoods, beside bandages and many surgical appliances. They give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to the household, a Christmas tree to the children and to all former patients who can be found (who last year numbered one hundred), and, during the year, drives to such of the children as are well enough to enjoy them. This year two hundred and fifty dollars were given to Sister Theresa, to enable her to take a much needed rest.

The number of patients for the first five months at the Hospital in Rutland Street was thirty; the number this last year in the large Hospital on Huntington Avenue was two hundred and seventy-nine, with a corresponding increase in the number of articles needed. Last year, five hundred and seventy-six garments were cut out and made by the ladies of the Ladies' Aid Association.

Beside the work done for the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association owns and carries on entirely the Convalescent Home at Wellesley. From the opening of the Hospital the Managers of this Association felt that a Convalescent Home was much needed, and for this purpose all donations and gifts not absolutely needed for their work were set aside. The liberal addition to this fund by one of the Managers enabled them, six years ago, to buy the present Home. The new and larger Hospital demands a larger Home, which they hope before many years to provide. There are twenty beds at the Home, and from the middle of June to the middle of October the Physicians and Lady Superintendent of the Hospital decide what children shall go to Wellesley, and how long each patient shall remain. The average length of each child's stay is between two and three weeks. The Home is under the charge of a competent person, aided by a nurse from the Hospital, and is regularly visited by the Managers of the Association. This last summer only sixteen were at the Home at any one time, because the experiment was tried of sending there more severe cases than in former years. This reduced the number for this year to sixty-nine. The physicians were satisfied with the results for the children, but they were so much more helpless in their splints and plaster jackets that they needed more care than usual. The medical staff considers this Home a most valuable addition to the Hospital, and the Managers of the Association wish that each subscriber would visit the Home, if possible, as well as the Hospital, and see how much comfort, and what wonderful relief are given to the suffering children whom they assist.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The Annual Meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A. M. on any day of the week except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Committee appointed for the purpose by the Board of Managers respectfully submit the sixteenth annual report of The Children's Hospital.

In preparing an annual report, it is difficult to offer to those who are readers of such reports anything novel in connection with the routine work which goes on from day to day with little variation.

The past year has been one of unusual activity. With the new building there has been an increase in the number of patients treated. By the report of the Medical Staff herewith, we find 304 patients have been admitted and cared for in the Hospital. The Convalescent Home at Wellesley has continued its beneficent influence, and 88 patients have been accommodated there. It offers an excellent opportunity to the members of the Medical Staff to send such of the children from the wards as need a change of scene and air.

In the out-patient department of the Hospital, 610 new patients have been treated, representing in all 2,012 visits.

The Ladies' Aid Association have continued their good work, and to them is due in great measure the uninterrupted success of the Hospital.

The Medical Staff again lay us under obligation for their skilful and faithful work. Dr. J. P. Oliver, after seven years' service, has resigned his position on the staff, and has been placed by the Managers on the Board of Consulting Physicians. Dr. Oliver's position on the staff has been filled by the promotion of Dr. H. C. Haven; and Dr. E. M. Buckingham has been appointed one of the Assistant Physicians.

The Sisters of St. Margaret are indefatigable in their care of the sick. To them, and to Sister Theresa especially, upon whom the whole responsibility of the general management of the Hospital rests, the Board of Managers are deeply indebted.

During the year the Managers have lost by death the services of Mr. Alanson Bigelow. For eight years he has been a faithful and constant worker with us; almost invariably present at our meetings, and ever ready when called on for advice or sympathy.

In response to the suggestion of the Medical Staff, the Managers have caused to be built a workshop for the manufacture of splints and apparatus. This plan has been adopted in hospitals in New York and Philadelphia, but our Hospital is the first to introduce it in this city. The treatment of the deformities of children demands much apparatus and a frequent change in the same; and the supply of these articles from instrument-makers becomes quite an item of expense, in addition to which, time is wasted in sending back and forth for needed changes. The workshop has been supplied with a gas engine, forge, grinding and polishing machine, and all the necessary tools. So far it has proved of great benefit to the Hospital, saving considerably in expense. A skilled mechanic is employed, who is authorized to take work from other institutions and from physicians when the work of our Hospital permits him to do so.

The expenses of the Hospital are very large each year, though not too large when one takes into account the amount of good service rendered to the sick poor children. The bills against the Hospital are monthly examined, before being paid, by the Committee on Supplies, and nothing is purchased upon which they do not pass judgment.

We say this, that those who have kindly and liberally helped us in the past may not feel that their gifts intrusted to our care are wasted. Our needs for the future are not less than in the past, and we would remind all who are liberally disposed that there is no worthier charity than The Children's Hospital.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

J. M. SEARS,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THE Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association feel that it is due the subscribers who have been so generous to this charity, that the following statement of the work of the Association be given them.

During the last year the Association has supplied for The Children's Hospital, as it has done in the previous thirteen years, all the towels, table and bed linen, clothing for the children, also boots, shoes, hats, and hoods, beside bandages and many surgical appliances. They also supply bandages, etc., for the out-patients. They give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to the household, a Christmas tree to the children and to all former patients who can be found (who last year numbered one hundred), and, during the year, drives to such of the children as are well enough to enjoy them.

The number of patients for the first five months at the Hospital in Rutland Street was thirty; the number this year in the large Hospital on Huntington Avenue was three hundred and four, with a corresponding increase in the number of articles needed. Last year, over two thousand garments were cut out and made by the ladies of the Ladies' Aid Association.

Beside the work done for the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association owns and carries on entirely the Convalescent Home at Wellesley. From the opening of the Hospital the Managers of this Association felt that a Convalescent Home was much needed, and for this purpose all donations and gifts not absolutely needed for their work were set aside. The liberal addition to this fund by one of the Managers enabled them, seven years ago, to buy the present Home. The new and larger Hospital demands a larger Home, which they hope before many years to provide. There are twenty beds at the Home, and from the middle of June to the middle of October the Physicians and Lady Superintendent of the Hospital decide what children shall go to Wellesley, and how long each patient shall remain. The average length of each child's stay is between two and three weeks. The Home is under the charge of a competent person, aided by a nurse from the Hospital, and is regularly visited by the Managers of the Association and by medical officers of the Hospital. During the past season only sixteen were at the Home at any one time, because the experiment was tried of sending there more severe cases than in former years. This reduced the number for this year to eighty-eight. The physicians were satisfied with the results for the children, who were so much more helpless in their splints and plaster jackets that they needed more care than usual. The Medical Staff considers this Home a most valuable addition to the Hospital, and the Managers of the Association wish that each subscriber would visit the Home, if possible, as well as the Hospital, and see how much comfort and what wonderful relief are given to the suffering children whom they assist.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards.

The Annual Meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

REPORT

OF THE

BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Managers submit to the Corporation the following report of the condition of the Hospital for the past year: In that time there have been received and treated, in the wards, 345 patients; in addition to which 743 out-patients have been under the care of the Medical Officers,—a total of 1088.

The Hospital has been used to its full capacity during nearly the whole year; the number of those treated are considerably larger than in previous years; and the relief to poor and suffering children has been proportionally increased. It is a source of gratification to the Managers that in no previous year has more satisfactory and faithful work been rendered by officers and attendants,—an assurance which is borne out by the improved condition of the children on leaving the institution and by the frequent and voluntary testimony of their friends.

The internal administration of the Hospital has been conducted—until her present illness disabled her—by Sister Theresa, with her well-known devotion and success. In her absence Sister Maria, another of the Sisters of St. Margaret, is kindly and faithfully taking charge of the children and the institution, under the immediate and constant supervision of the Executive Committee. We trust that the skill and tenderness which Sister Theresa has never failed to manifest for others, may be returned to her now, and hasten her restoration to health and strength.

The Medical Staff have, as in years before, contributed their valuable gratuitous services. Their report is appended. The workshop, organized by the medical officers a year ago, has been carried on without expense to the Hospital, and with great advantage to the patients, both within and without the house. By its means the cost of surgical apparatus furnished to our own patients has been very materially reduced, and the cost of that supplied to outpatients, suffering from deformities and otherwise disabled, is in like manner diminished. Much time is saved by allowing minor changes in splints and appliances to be made on the spot and at the moment, and the expense of maintaining patients consequently lessened. So great have been found to be the advantages derived from the workshop that the Managers have felt justified in doubling its size, and the workmen are already occupying the enlarged building.

The Ladies' Aid Association has continued its generous and indispensable support, and has largely contributed by labor, material, and counsel to the prosperity of the Hospital. A statement of the work done by them will be printed with the report of the Board. As in previous years, the association has carried on the Convalescent Home at Wellesley, where one hundred children have had the advantage of a change to country air and scenery, while still under the care and supervision of the medical officers.

Another feature of the Hospital, the private wards, have been a decided success. These offer to parents or guardians of children, wherever resident, the opportunity to come to the institution with their children, and to remain with them while under treatment. The most reliable medical attendance, careful nursing, and satisfactory rooms and board are furnished, at very reasonable rates.

The Managers desire to return their grateful acknowledgments to many friends who have aided the Hospital by gifts of money or supplies, by the manifestation of kindly interest in the work, and by sustaining their hands and giving assurances of confidence. All these means have, thus far, combined to make the Hospital a success.

During the past year the following legacies have come to the Hospital: From the estate of Susan O. Brooks, $500; Charles Faulkner, $10,000; Mary G. Perkins, $10,000; Valeria G. Stone, $2,500; Walter E. Hawes, $2,500. While referring to these large amounts, the Managers cannot fail again to mention the receipt of smaller sums, given as donations or annual subscriptions, and especially of money brought by children — the result of fairs and similar entertainments, organized and carried on by themselves; which we are sure must work a double good, — to the giver and the receiver. While gratefully acknowledging these gifts, the Managers remind their friends that the Hospital is still in need of funds for support.

The Managers have been called on during the past year to mourn the loss of two of their most esteemed and important associates, Mr. John C. Phillips and Mr. Charles Faulkner. Mr. Faulkner was so active and valuable a friend to the Hospital, in counsel, work, and all manner of contributions, that we cannot adequately express the debt which the institution owes to him. His prudence, courage, and devotion have never wavered from the beginning to the end of his long association with us. He was one of the original members of the Board. Mr. Phillips has been a member of the Board for many years and had constantly manifested the greatest interest in the Hospital by his contributions, both of time and money. Messrs. Fred. L. Ames, H. H. Hunnewell, and George P. Gardner have been added to the Board during the past year.

In concluding their report, the Board of Managers desire to call the attention of the Corporators to the fact that larger accommodations will soon be needed to enable them to carry out fully the purposes of the Hospital. Some of the departments are already very much crowded, and are carried on unsatisfactorily to the Managers, and with constant annoyance to the medical and administrative officers. The Managers feel that, at an early day they must, in a faithful discharge of their duties, call on the community to aid them in completing the plans originally made by the erection of another wing.

The Managers take this occasion to renew their assurances to the public that proper examination has been made from time to time by appropriate committees into the administration and expenditures of the Hospital, and that it is in every way carefully and satisfactorily conducted.

Respectfully submitted for the Managers by their Committee.

CHARLES L. YOUNG,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THE Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association make the following statement of their work.

During the last year the Association has supplied for The Children's Hospital, as it has done in the previous fifteen years, all the towels, table and bed linen, clothing for the children, also boots, shoes, hats, and hoods, besides bandages and many surgical appliances. They also supply bandages, etc., for the out-patients. They give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to the household, a Christmas-tree to the children in the Hospital, and to those who have been patients at any time during the past two years, and, through the year, drives to such of the children as are well enough to enjoy them. Last year several kind friends gave money to be expended "for the pleasure of the children," and part of this has been spent for "picnics" at Wellesley.

The garments cut out and made by this Association last year numbered only three hundred and seventy-two, as an unusually large amount of clothing had been provided for the new Hospital the two previous years. The number of articles provided since the Hospital opened, in 1869, is between seventeen and eighteen thousand.

Besides the work done for the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association owns and carries on entirely the Convalescent Home at Wellesley. From the opening of the Hospital the Managers of this Association felt that a Convalescent Home was much needed, and for this purpose all donations and gifts not absolutely needed for their work were set aside. The liberal addition to this fund by one of the Managers enabled them, eight years ago, to buy the present Home. Since the last report, the Home has been incorporated, under the name of "The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital." In consequence of the incorporation, the Treasurer's books were closed December seventh, and some items of this year's expenses will necessarily appear in next year's report. A friend of the institution, knowing the need of a larger building, has offered to give towards it five thousand dollars, whenever five thousand dollars additional shall have been raised. Meantime to make the house we now own comfortable, several important repairs have been necessary.

There are twenty beds at the Home, and from the middle of June to the middle of October, the physicians and Lady Superintendent of the Hospital decide what children shall go to Wellesley, and how long each patient shall remain. The average length of each child's stay is between two and three weeks, and this year one hundred children have been at the Home. The Home is under the charge of a competent person aided by a nurse from the Hospital, and is regularly visited by the Managers of the Association and by medical officers of the Hospital.

The Medical Staff considers this Home a most valuable addition to the Hospital, and the Managers of the Association wish that each subscriber would visit the Home, if possible, as well as the Hospital, and see how much comfort and relief are given to the suffering children whom they assist.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards. The Annual Meeting occurs on the second Thursday of February.

REPORT
OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS.

THE Committee of the Managers appointed to prepare the annual report of the Board to the Corporation have pleasure in presenting the Eighteenth Annual Report.

The statement of the Medical Staff on the pages following is sufficient proof of the increasing good which the Hospital is daily accomplishing in the relief of sick and suffering children. From this it will be seen that there have been few empty cots in the wards, while in the out-patient department we have recorded about thirty-seven hundred visits, an increase of over one thousand as compared with last year's figures. The total number of patients treated in this department is nine hundred and eight.

During the year the Managers have lost the useful services of Mr. H. G. Pickering by resignation. Mr. Charles H. Joy was elected to fill the vacancy.

To the Sisters of St. Margaret, and to Sister Maria particularly, who during the past year has so acceptably filled the position of Superintendent, the thanks of the Managers are especially due. Sister Theresa is still away from the Hospital on account of illness. She offered her resignation as Superintendent; but the Board of Managers declined to accept it.

The Convalescent Home at Wellesley has contributed in great measure to the prosperity of the Hospital, and many of the children have been benefited by the change.

The efficiency and success of this Home are due to kind work of the members of the Ladies' Aid Association; and we are not unmindful of their valuable assistance in the management of the Hospital itself.

The thanks of the Managers are due to the Medical Staff for the interest they have shown in the general welfare of the Hospital, and for their untiring devotion to the sick children.

It was with great regret that the Managers accepted the resignation of Dr. S. W. Langmaid from the Medical Staff. The Committee on behalf of the Managers desire to place on record their grateful appreciation of his long and useful service to the Hospital, in recognition of which the Managers have created during his lifetime a new office,—Surgeon for Diseases of the Throat,—which chair Dr. Langmaid was appointed to fill. Dr. Abner Post has been elected by the Board of Managers to fill the vacancy on the Medical Staff caused by the resignation of Dr. Langmaid.

The workshop for the manufacture of splints and other apparatus proves a great success, and to the originators of the scheme the gratitude of the Managers is due.

A beautifully painted window, presented by the niece and nephews as a memorial of Mrs. Sarah K. Goodnow, adorns the girls' ward.

In the last annual report your attention was called to the fact of some of the departments being overcrowded, and that larger accommodations were needed. This is particularly true of the out-patient department. During the past few years the good work done by our Out-patient Medical Staff has been the means of increasing the number of patients to such an extent, that immediate action is necessary, not only for the welfare of those who come for treatment, but more especially for the health and comfort of our physicians and the nurses. The rooms at their disposal are inadequate, — too small and poorly ventilated, totally unfit for the large numbers presenting themselves on the days set apart for receiving out-patients. A few figures will show the growth of this work.

	Patients treated.	Visits represented.
1882	421	1,063
1883	506	1,488
1884	610	2,012
1885	741	2,671
1886	908	3,725

This department reaches a larger number of children than the Hospital itself possibly can ; it is a work, too, that is not accomplished by the Dispensaries in Boston, and so becoming a charity well deserving of aid. What we need is a building large enough and suitably arranged to accommodate from one to two hundred persons at a time. Each child is generally accompanied by its mother or father, and possibly by some interested friend. In our present confined quarters there have at times been eighty persons waiting. The close atmosphere and crowded rooms are alike trying to patient, physician, and nurse, and the work is carried on with great inconvenience to comfort and health. It would be well, too, to have the out-patient department in a building by itself, connected with the Hospital by a passage-way, thereby lessening the danger of carrying contagious diseases to the patients in the wards.

It is sincerely hoped that before our next annual meeting we can have the much-needed building completed.

In conclusion, the Managers desire to express their great gratitude to those who have given them their liberal support, and would invite all who may be interested, to visit and inspect the Hospital, so that they may be able to judge for themselves how good the work is,—the giving relief to sick and suffering children.

Respectfully submitted for the Managers by their Committee.

JOSHUA M. SEARS,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THE Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association make the following statement of their work.

During the last year the Association has supplied for The Children's Hospital, as it has done in the previous sixteen years, all the towels, table and bed linen, clothing for the children, also boots, shoes, hats, and hoods, besides bandages and many surgical appliances. The number of garments provided since the Hospital opened, in 1869, is between eighteen and nineteen thousand. They also supply bandages, etc., for the out-patients. They give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to the household, a Christmas-tree to the children in the Hospital, and to those who have been patients at any time during the past two years, and, through the year, drives to such of the children as are well enough to enjoy them.

Besides the work done for the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association owns and carries on entirely the Convalescent Home, at Wellesley. From the opening of the Hospital the Managers of this Association felt that a Convalescent Home was much needed, and for this purpose all donations and gifts not absolutely needed for their work were set aside. The liberal addition to this fund by one of the Managers enabled them, nine years ago, to buy the present Home. The Home has now been incorporated under the name of "The Convalescent Home of the Children's Hospital." A friend of the institution, knowing the need of a larger building, has offered to give towards it five thousand dollars, whenever five thousand dollars additional shall have been raised. More than fifteen hundred dollars of this sum was contributed during the last year, — the result of a piano recital given by Mrs. H. H. A. Beach; and also one hundred and five dollars, the proceeds of a children's fair.

There are twenty beds at the Home, and from the middle of June to the middle of October the physicians and Lady Superintendent of the Hospital decide what children shall go to Wellesley, and how long each patient shall remain. The average length of each child's stay is between two and three weeks, and this year one hundred and twelve children have been at the Home. The Home is under the charge of a competent person, aided by a nurse from the Hospital, and is regularly visited by the Managers of the Association and by medical officers of the Hospital.

The Medical Staff considers this Home a most valuable addition to the Hospital, and the Managers of the Association wish that each subscriber would visit the Home, if possible, as well as the Hospital, and see how much comfort and relief are given to the suffering children whom they assist.

REPORT
OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS.

IN presenting this, their Nineteenth Annual Report, the Managers feel highly gratified with the good work the Children's Hospital is doing. The constantly increasing number of applicants for beds in the wards, and the still greater increase in the number of patients treated by the Out-Patient Department, are sure proofs of the confidence in our Medical Staff and nurses.

During the past twelve months three hundred and sixty-two patients have been cared for in the Hospital, and of this number two hundred and fifty-one have returned home well or relieved; while in the Out-Patient Department about twelve hundred and three have been treated, an increase over last year of three hundred children. Out of this number there has been an excellent percentage of recoveries.

During the past four or five years the rooms set apart in the basement of the Hospital building for the uses of the Out-Patient Department have proved themselves totally unfit for the work carried on by the out-patient medical staff. The conditions at the present time are so changed from what they were a few years ago,—in other words, the work of the Out-Patient Staff has been so increased of late,—that it became absolutely necessary to call upon the kind friends of the Hospital to help us in erecting a separate building for that Department, with a larger number of waiting and dressing rooms. The response to the call sent out was prompt and generous. As a result, we have nearly completed a most admirably arranged and constructed building, with plenty of rooms well ventilated and fit for the purpose, designed especially to facilitate the work of all connected with this important branch of the Institution.

To Sister Maria and her assistants, who have had charge in the absence of Sister Theresa, the Managers would express their deepest gratitude. With the wards full of so many little children, the cares of the Lady Superintendent and her associates are very numerous.

The lives of the children often depend on the constancy, the gentleness, and the intelligent carrying out of the directions of the medical officers; while the harmonious co-operation of all in the household is needed to attain the best results in the life of the institution. For many years the Managers have had the sympathizing, faithful, unpaid services of the Sisters of St. Margaret. They heartily join in expressing the hope that the kind offices of the Sisters may be continued for many years to come.

The Ladies' Aid Association has continued its good work in furnishing bedding, bandages, and the many smaller articles needed in the care of the sick children. The Convalescent Home, established and maintained by the ladies of the Association, has been kept open during the summer months, and has given much assistance to the staff.

The medical officers of the Hospital have given their services unremittingly, and by their skill have not only done much to relieve the suffering of the children, but added greatly to the renown which the Hospital possesses among the worthy institutions of our city.

During the year Dr. Abner Post has resigned his position as surgeon, and Dr. A. M. Sumner as physician. Dr. R. W. Lovett has been appointed one of the assistant surgeons.

The house officers, Messrs. Eaton, Hunting, and Fay, have faithfully fulfilled the duties assigned them, and are deserving the thanks of the Board.

In conclusion, the Board express the feeling that The Children's Hospital is doing very excellent work in caring for the sick, deformed, and disabled children. Every available means is provided for giving the best opportunity for recovery and improvement; the building and its appliances, the medical officers, the nursing, are the best which can be obtained. The funds of the Hospital are spent in the most judicious manner possible, in accordance with the true welfare of the patients; and the members of the community may rest assured that the liberal means which they place at the command of the Managers are carefully and faithfully dispensed.

At this time, however, while making so large an outlay for the erection of the Out-Patient building, the Managers feel it their duty to ask for more ample means. The necessity for building the foundations of the remaining ward of the Hospital at the same time with the erection of the Out-Patient building, and the reorganizing the steam-heating in such a manner as would be satisfactory for the entire Hospital when completed, seemed to justify the expenditure of a larger sum than was at first thought expedient. The fact that the Hospital is able to command the services of surgeons and physicians the most eminent in the treatment of the deformities and diseases of children, — several of them instructors in those branches in the Medical School of Harvard University, — together with the constant supervision of the most skilful nurses, places the institution in a very high rank. The Managers, therefore, feel the utmost confidence in calling on those who seek the good of the children who are coming forward to be citizens, to aid them in making up the deficiency which exists.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

E. V. R. THAYER,
Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THE Managers of the Ladies' Aid Association make the following statement of their work.

During the last year the Association has supplied for the Children's Hospital, as it has done in the previous seventeen years, all the towels, table and bed linen, clothing for the children, also boots, shoes, hats, and hoods, besides bandages and many surgical appliances. The number of garments provided since the Hospital opened, in 1869, is between eighteen and nineteen thousand. They also supply bandages, etc., for the out-patients. They give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to the household, a Christmas tree to the children in the Hospital, and to those who have been patients at any time during the past two years, and, through the year, drives to such of the children as are well enough to enjoy them.

Besides the work done for the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association owns and carries on entirely the Convalescent Home, at Wellesley. From the opening of the Hospital the Managers of this Association felt that a Convalescent Home was much needed, and for this purpose all donations and gifts not absolutely needed for their work were set aside. The liberal addition to this fund by one of the Managers enabled them, ten years ago, to buy the present Home. The Home has now been incorporated under the name of "The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital." A friend of the institution, knowing the need of a larger building, has offered to give towards it five thousand dollars, whenever five thousand dollars additional shall have been raised. The Building Fund has been increased during the year more than twenty-three hundred dollars by the generous gifts of Mrs. H. H. A. Beach, who gave the proceeds of a second piano recital, and of Mrs. William Appleton and other kind friends.

There are twenty beds at the Home, and from the middle of June to the middle of October the physicians and Lady Superintendent decide what children shall go to Wellesley, and how long each patient shall remain. The average length of each child's stay is between two and three weeks, and this year ninety children have been at the Home. This number is smaller than for the last two or three years, because the Home was practically closed during the middle of August, as it was feared the sanitary arrangements were not in perfect order. The Home is under the charge of a competent person, aided by a nurse from the Hospital, and is regularly visited by the Managers of the Association and by medical officers of the Hospital.

The Medical Staff considers this Home a most valuable addition to the Hospital, and the Managers of the Association wish that each subscriber would visit the Home, if possible, as well as the Hospital, and see how much comfort and relief are given to the suffering children whom they assist.

R E P O R T
OF THE
BOARD OF MANAGERS.

AT the close of twenty years of its existence the Board of Managers of THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL feel themselves justified in going beyond their usual custom of reviewing a single year, and looking back over the entire history of the Institution.

No plan for benevolent action could have been more cordially received than was that of the founders of the Hospital; none could have been more heartily sustained both by encouraging word and financial aid; and the Managers are confident that no institution in this community has more fully justified the anticipations of those who saw it in its earliest days.

The Report of the Board of Managers, written by the Rev. Chandler Robbins, D.D., and presented to the Corporation in December, 1869, states that the original plans, together with the By-Laws under which, almost without a change, we are to-day working, were laid before a few gentlemen on the ninth day of December, 1868. Without recounting the initiatory steps, it is only necessary to say that an association of gentlemen "for the establishment of a Children's Hospital in Boston" was formed on the 23d of January, 1869; and that the Act of Incorporation, granted by the Legislature in February, was accepted, and the corporation duly organized on the 22d of March of the same year.

To its well-devised organization and plans; to the interest which must ever attend any institution having for its object the care and the relief of children; to the wise and faithful ministrations of devoted women, who, without money and without price, have poured out their strength to sustain the patients; to the skill, the untiring labor and watchfulness of the medical officers; to the cordial co-operation of our associate band of ladies, with a due recognition of the Divine blessing which has seemed to be always upon our Institution,—to all these elements the Managers have always felt was due the success of The Children's Hospital.

With the limited means at the disposal of the Managers, the Hospital was begun in a small way. The house No. 9 Rutland Street was bought and opened on the 19th of July, 1869, and was dedicated to its charitable and Christian uses, by appropriate services, on the 3d of August. Its capacity was about twenty beds. The first patient, a little boy suffering from hip-disease, was received on the 20th of July. In this house the Hospital continued for one year. In July, 1870, the Managers secured by lease the estate No. 1583 Washington Street, with a capacity of twenty-seven beds, which was occupied until the completion of the building on Huntington Avenue. In September, 1880, a very desirable lot of land on that avenue, measuring over thirty-one thousand feet, was purchased, and efforts were at once made to secure the best plans for the new Hospital. In its construction every care was taken to render the building suitable to its purpose, — with wards of ample dimensions, with the most approved means for ventilation, sunlight, warmth, and cheerfulness, with private wards for paying patients, proper offices for the medical staff and nurses, and, in short, every desirable means for the care of sick children. On the 26th of December, 1882, it was dedicated to its appropriate use.

In the Report presented by the Managers to the Corporation in 1885, and again in the Reports of 1886 and 1887, attention was called to the imperative necessity of the Out-Patient Department, — a branch of the Hospital which had been for some years doing a large amount of work in an admirable manner, but in restricted quarters, — for those children whose residence in the Hospital was not deemed essential. In the latter part of 1886 the Managers purchased a lot of land adjoining their former purchase, containing about five thousand feet, and a thoroughly-arranged and commodious building for out-patients, built thereon, was opened in September, 1888.

In order to complete the plans of the founders of the Hospital, the erection of the second wing remains to be undertaken. A fund, partially sufficient to meet this end, has already been subscribed, and it is the expectation of the Board that the wing will be put up during the coming year. As a matter of economy and convenience, the foundations of this wing have already been put in.

During the past twenty years thirty-eight gentlemen have served on the Board of Managers. Of these twelve have died, nine of them while in office. Five members of the original Board are still in the service of the Hospital.

One distinctive feature in the plan of The Children's Hospital is that it shall be under the immediate charge of voluntary nurses, who are willing to engage in the work for no other recompense than the satisfaction of ministering to the physical and spiritual comfort of the sick and suffering. The only source to which the Managers could apply to meet this end was to one of the "Evangelical sisterhoods," whose members have devoted their lives to deeds of charity. It was to be expected that, so far as a religious influence was exerted on the children, that influence would be affected by the tenets of the church to which these women were personally attached. At the close of a score of years the Managers repeat the words of Dr. Robbins, written in 1869: "Thus far they have seen no reason to object. The main point with them has been to secure for the children, while inmates of the Hospital, in connection with the best of care, a positively Christian nurture; and both these results they are convinced have been perfectly accomplished under the existing administration. . . . To those nurses who under whatever system can produce such admirable and beneficent results the Managers have no reason to object, but rather to express their grateful obligations."

Early in 1869 the Ladies' Aid Association was formed by the late Mrs. Chandler Robbins, who gathered about her a band of devoted ladies, and they and their successors have constantly labored for the good of the Institution. In them the Managers have ever felt they had a strong, sustaining, concurrent body of workers; to them we owe the organization and continued support of the Convalescent Home; and from them have come the supplies of linen and household goods which have been used in the Hospital, and which have saved a large inroad on our treasury.

Thirty-one members of the medical profession have from time to time freely given us their skilful and devoted services.

At a meeting of the Managers in 1881 it was voted to permit the establishment of memorial beds by those who desired to connect with the Hospital the names of deceased children or friends. The gift of five hundred dollars now insures that privilege. Six memorial beds have already been established. In addition, a beautiful memorial window has been put up in the girls' ward by the family of a deceased lady, a friend of children.

With the view of having under their own oversight and control the manufacture and adjustment of apparatus for deformed children, and also to reduce the cost of such apparatus to the poor, the Medical Staff solicited the Managers, in April, 1884, to erect a building and supply it with machinery for the purpose. This plan was at once carried out, and the Department has been in satisfactory operation to this time. Apparatus is supplied to the parents of children at a small advance on cost.

In the new building for out-patients, to which allusion has been made, the first floor is devoted to surgical out-patients, and includes a waiting-room capable of holding one hundred and fifty persons, with numerous small rooms, in which patients may be examined and treated by the surgeons; other rooms are the operating-room, record-room, gymnasium, surgeon's room, etc. In the basement is the workshop, a museum of the various apparatus employed in the treatment of deformities, a room for the application of plaster apparatus, for treatment by electrical apparatus, etc. The second story is devoted to the medical out-patients, and includes suitable rooms for their care. There is also a lecture-room for clinical instruction and a fully-equipped photograph-room.

It remains only to speak of the past year. During the twelve months three hundred and eighty-two patients have been cared for in the Hospital, and of this number three hundred and ten have been discharged well or relieved. In the Out-Patient Department one thousand two hundred and seventy-five patients have been treated.

At the beginning of the year Mr. Joy declined a re-election, and the place was filled by the choice of Dr. F. C. Shattuck. Dr. Rotch was made physician in place of Dr. Sumner, resigned; and Dr. Burrell, in place of Dr. Post, resigned. Dr. Buckingham was made assistant physician and Dr. Cushing assistant surgeon. Drs. T. F. Sherman and C. W. Townsend were appointed assistant physicians to out-patients, Drs. R. W. Lovett and E. G. Brackett assistant surgeons to out-patients, and Dr. W. N. Bullard neurologist and electrician.

In conclusion, your Board again recommends The Children's Hospital to the favorable consideration of those who love children. Much remains to be done in completing the building, so that the Institution can work to the best advantage, and in giving it an endowment which will make it thoroughly useful for all time. To heal those suffering from acute or lingering diseases, to overcome the effects of conditions incident to poverty and want, to cure the deformed, are problems which the Managers and the Medical Staff have carefully studied. The conclusion reached by them is, that only by the use of the best of food, the employment of the most recent and approved appliances, with judicious nursing and care, can a cure be effected in the diseases, injuries, and deformities of children. To aid them in furnishing such means they rely on the continued generosity of the community.

Respectfully submitted, on behalf of the Managers,
by their Committee.

FRANCIS H. BROWN,

Chairman.

THE LADIES' AID ASSOCIATION OF THE
CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL,INCORPORATED UNDER THE NAME OF THE CONVALESCENT HOME OF THE CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL.

THE Managers make the following statement of their work.

During the last year they have supplied for the Children's Hospital, as in the previous eighteen years, all the towels, table and bed linen, clothing for the children, also boots, shoes, hats, and hoods, besides bandages and many surgical appliances. The number of garments provided since the Hospital opened, in 1869, is between eighteen and nineteen thousand. They also supply bandages, etc., for the out-patients. They give Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to the household, a Christmas-tree to the children in the Hospital, and to those who have been patients at any time during the past two years, and, through the year, drives to such of the children as are well enough to enjoy them. It will be noticed that the sum expended for materials for "hospital use," and for "doctors' use" is much larger than in previous years. This is owing to the great increase in the number of out-patients, and to the supplies needed for the new Out-Patient Building.

Besides the work done for the Hospital, the Ladies' Aid Association owns and entirely carries on the Convalescent Home, at Wellesley. From the opening of the Hospital the Managers of this Association felt that a Convalescent Home was much needed, and for this purpose all donations not absolutely needed for their work at the Hospital were set aside. A liberal addition to this fund by one of the Managers enabled them, eleven years ago, to buy the present Home. The Home has now been incorporated under the name of "The Convalescent Home of The Children's Hospital." During the year contributions to the Building Fund have been received, which bring that sum up to the five thousand dollars needed to secure five thousand conditionally promised some time ago. This enables the Managers to hope that ere long they may have the larger Home which is so much needed.

There are twenty beds at the Home, and from the middle of June to the middle of October the physicians and Lady Superintendent decide what children shall go to Wellesley, and how long each patient shall remain. The average length of each child's stay is between two and three weeks, and this year one hundred and four children have been at the Home. This is under the charge of a competent person, aided by a nurse from the Hospital, and is regularly visited by the Managers of the Association and by medical officers of the Hospital.

An increase in the expenses of the Convalescent Home will also be noticed ; and this is in consequence of some important repairs which were necessary, and to the fact that the Home was open six or eight weeks longer this season than last.

The Medical Staff considers this Home a most valuable addition to the Hospital, and the Managers of the Association wish that each subscriber would visit the Home, if possible, as well as the Hospital, and see how much comfort and relief are given to the suffering children whom they assist.

Any lady may become a member of the Association by the annual contribution of one dollar or upwards. The Annual Meeting for the distribution of work and receiving subscriptions occurs on the second Thursday of February.

Application for the admission of patients may be made at the Hospital at 9 A.M. on any day of the week except Sunday. Recent cases of accident will be received at any hour.

The beds in the Hospital are free to those who are really poor; but a moderate charge will be made to such as are able to pay. Patients from beyond the limits of the city will be received on payment of not less than four dollars per week.

Relatives may be admitted to see patients on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from 11 to 12. No patient shall receive more than one visitor at a time; and, in all cases, the lady in charge may exercise her discretion as to admitting or excluding visitors.
